CALL FOR PAPERS

Hispania, the scholarly journal of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese \(AATSP\)

Portuguese Special Issue

Abstract Submission Deadline: March 15, 2019

In 2019, the AATSP will celebrate the 75th anniversary of the incorporation of Portuguese into what was previously known as the AATS. Hispania seeks to commemorate this occasion with a Portuguese special issue that focuses on research and teaching related to the language, literatures, and cultures of Lusophone areas across the globe.

Distinguished colleagues Dr. Leila Lehnen (Brown University, lead editor), Dr. Orlando R. Kelm (University of Texas, Austin, co-editor), Dr. Kathryn M. Sanchez (University of Wisconsin, co-editor) and Dr. Claire Williams (University of Oxford, co-editor) will curate this issue with the Editor of Hispania.

Submissions, related to any of the areas in which Hispania publishes, are welcomed. Based on editorial review of abstracts received, full articles will be requested for peer review.

We also encourage the submission of Portuguese-related sessions at the AATSP in San Diego, California, July 8-11, 2019 - Remember that the deadline for AATSP presentation submission is Saturday October 20! (<https://www.aatsp.org/page/2019CFPDescr>).

Please send abstracts of 150-200 words with a working bibliography along with a CV to bfraser@aatsp.org by March 15, 2019. Requested full articles due October 20, 2019.
