

21st Biennial AAVPT Symposium - August 23-26, 2019. Kansas City, MO

AAVPT AWARDS NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

All award nominations should be submitted electronically to the Chair of the AAVPT Awards Committee, Dr. Tomás Martín-Jiménez (tmartinj@utk.edu) by the deadline corresponding to each award.

Research, Teaching and Service Awards:

Candidate Qualifications: There are no restrictions regarding age, gender, institutional affiliation/employment, race or nationality of candidates. Candidates need not be members of the AAVPT.

Nomination Material: The following documents shall be submitted in support of a nomination:

- Curriculum vitae of the candidate
- No fewer than two letters of recommendation/support from members of the AAVPT describing the contributions that make the candidate eligible.
- Supporting documentation is encouraged.

Submission Deadline: Nomination material should be received by April 15th of 2019.

The Lloyd E. Davis Award:

Candidate Qualifications: There are no restrictions regarding age, gender, institutional affiliation/employment, race or nationality of candidates. Candidates need not be members of the AAVPT. The decision of the Awards Committee shall be based on originality and uniqueness of accomplishments throughout a career distinguished by a sustained contribution to education and research in veterinary or comparative pharmacology.

Nomination Material: The following documents shall be submitted in support of a nomination:

- Nominations shall be made and seconded by no fewer than two members of the AAVPT.
- Each nominating letter will describe the contributions of the candidate to veterinary or comparative pharmacology that make him or her eligible for the award, listing his or her major publications or other contributions.
- Complete curriculum vitae of the candidate.

Submission Deadline: Nomination documents must be submitted to the Chair of the AAVPT Awards Committee by April 15th of 2019.

