PREFACE

The Sixth Biennial Symposium of the American Academy of Veterinary Pharmacology and Therapeutics (AAVPT), held June 13-16 at Blacksburg, Virginia, was dedicated to Dr. Lloyd E. Davis, professor of veterinary pharmacology and clinical medicine at the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine at Urbana. Dr. Davis was honored for his numerous contributions to AAVPT and to the discipline of veterinary and comparative pharmacology.

As part of the honor, Dr. Davis delivered the inaugural Lloyd E. Davis Lecture, entitled "Veterinary and Comparative Pharmacology, A Personal Philosophy", during the symposium. Future lectures will be presented by recipients of the Lloyd E. Davis Award, which will be awarded by the AAVPT in recognition of sustained, significant contributions to education, research and service in veterinary or comparative pharmacology.

The symposium, which attracted veterinary pharmacologists from across the North America and from Europe, addressed contemporary issues of animal drugs and food safety. Sessions explored the impact of animal drugs on food safety and quality, analytical methodologies for residue detection, and considerations related to the teaching of veterinary and comparative pharmacology in the future.

Dr. Davis, who earned his DVM degree from the Ohio State University in 1959, and his PhD degree in pharmacology from the University of Missouri in 1963, was instrumental in the development of veterinary clinical pharmacology in the U.S. He is a founding fellow of the AAVPT and served as the organization's first president. He is a member of numerous professional organizations, has written more than 200 publications in his career (including four books), and has been asked to consult with a variety of organizations including the U.S. Pharmacopeial Convention and the Food and Drug Administration.

Section IV ROLE OF COMPUTERS IN MANAGING INFORMATION FOR PHARMACOLOGY TEACHING AND RESEARCH

- 77 Role of Computers in Managing Information for Pharmacology Teaching and Research: Medical Informatics, Richard B. Talbot
- 82 Coping with the Information Explosion in Pharmacology: The Food Animal Residue Avoidance Databank, Stephen F. Sundlof, J. Edmond Riviere and Arthur L. Craigmill
- 86 Development of an Automated Clinical Pharmacokinetic Dosing Program for Therapeutic Drug Monitoring in Veterinary Medicine, J. Edmond Riviere
- 89 PharmTools: A Computer Technique for Pharmacokinetic Modeling and Replacement of Teaching Animals, Jeff Wilcke, Carl Osborne and Neal Bataller
- 91 Future Applications of Computer Technology in Pharmacology: Roles for Artificial Intelligence, Hypertext, Networking and Interactive Video, Gordon L. Coppoc

Section V THE FIRST DECADE OF AAVPT AND NEW FRONTIERS IN VETERINARY AND COMPARATIVE PHARMACOLOGY

- 97 Veterinary and Comparative Pharmacology: A Personal Philosophy, Lloyd E. Davis
- 101 Historical Notes on the AAVPT Years 1976-1981, Charles R. Short
- 104 History of American Academy of Veterinary Pharmacology and Therapeutics, 1981-1983, Thomas E. Powers
- 105 Reflections on the Years 1983-1985 During the First Decade of the AAVPT, Carl E. Aronson
- 107 The First Decade of the American Academy of Veterinary Pharmacology and Therapeutics: The 1985-1987 Era, William L. Jenkins
- 109 Inflammation and Joint Disease: Mechanisms, Mediators, and Medicines, Peter Lees
- 110 A New Frontier in Veterinary and Comparative Pharmacology: Aquatic Species, J. F. Burka, J. E. Hogen and R. M. J. Blair
- 113 New Frontiers in Veterinary and Comparative Pharmacology for Regulatory Agencies, Richard H. Teske
- 115 New Frontiers in Veterinary and Comparative Pharmacology for Industry, John W. Paul
- 116 New Frontiers in Veterinary and Comparative Pharmacology for Academia, Peter Eyre

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Organizing Committee wishes to acknowledge the following
Sponsors for the Sixth Biennial Symposium
American Academy of Veterinary Pharmacology and Therapeutics

American Cyanamid

Beecham Laboratories

Boehringer Ingelheim
Animal Health

Center for Veterinary Medicine
Food and Drug Administration

Food Safety and Inspection Service
U.S. Dept of Agriculture

Fort Dodge Laboratories

Hoechst-Roussel Agri-Vet

Hoffmann-LaRoche

Monsanto

Norden Laboratories

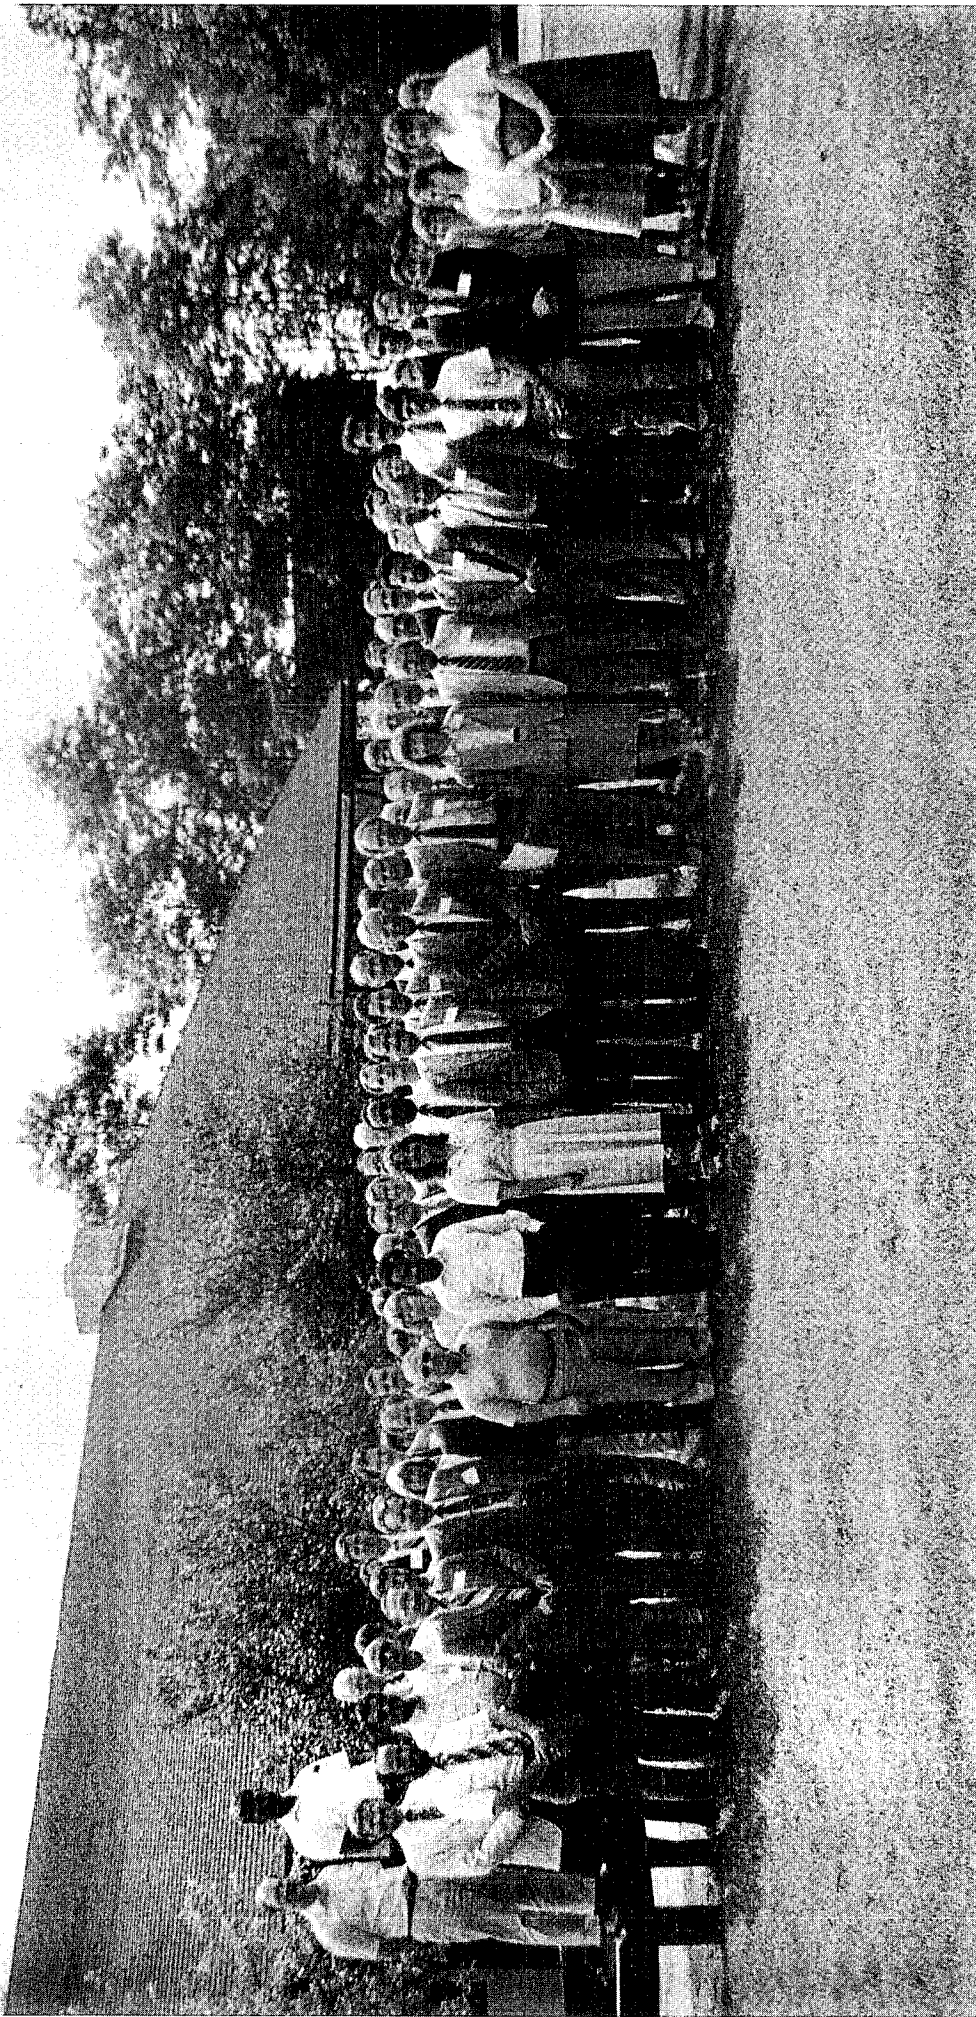

Solvay Veterinary

Syntex

Virginia Tech Foundation

VA-MD Regional College of Veterinary Medicine

We are especially grateful to Linda Pfeiffer, Linda Price, Jolena Blackburn, and Jane Talbot for their valuable assistance in the preparation of this proceeding; and special thanks also to session chairmen, participants, and all those who helped to make the publication of these proceedings possible.

Dr. Lloyd E. Davis

Dr. Davis was born in Akron, Ohio on August 23, 1929. His undergraduate education was at the University of Akron (Arts & Sciences) and George Washington University (Physics). He received the DVM degree from The Ohio State University in 1959 and the PhD degree in pharmacology from the University of Missouri in 1963. He was a member of the faculties of Veterinary Medicine and Medicine at the University of Missouri from 1959 to 1969 where he taught and engaged in research in comparative pharmacology. He served on the faculty of the College of Veterinary Medicine of The Ohio State University from 1969-1972 and as Visiting Professor of Veterinary Pharmacology at the University of Nairobi, Kenya from 1972-1974. He returned to the United States as Professor of Clinical Pharmacology at the College of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences of Colorado State University 1974-1978. Currently he is Professor of Clinical Pharmacology and holds joint appointments in Veterinary Clinical Medicine and Pharmacology at the College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Illinois.

Dr. Davis is a member of the following professional organizations:

- American Veterinary Medical Association
- Eastern Illinois Veterinary Medical Association
- American Association of Veterinary Medical Colleges
- National Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners (former member)
- Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine
- American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics
- Member—Division of Clinical Pharmacology
- Member—Division of Drug Metabolism
- First President—American College of Veterinary Pharmacology and Therapeutics
- American Association of Veterinary Clinicians
- Academy of Veterinary Cardiology
- American Society of Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics
- International Society for the Study of Xenobiotics
- The International Platform Association

His research interests have been in species differences in disposition and fate of drugs and in regional blood flow. His current interests are in veterinary clinical pharmacology. These include: integration of pharmacologic principles into the teaching of clinical veterinary medicine; continuing education for veterinary practitioners; and research on improved methods of drug evaluation, improved methods of drug therapy and influence of disease on the disposition and fate of drugs.

Dr. Davis' publications include 170 journal articles, 41 chapters in books, 4 books and 178 presentations at meetings.

His editorial positions include:

Former member of Editorial Board, American Journal of Veterinary Research
Reviewer, Journal of American Veterinary Medical Association, American Journal of Veterinary Research
Member editorial board, Journal of Veterinary Pharmacology Therapeutics
Editor, "Topics in Drug Therapy," Journal of American Veterinary Medical Association
Former Consulting Editor, Veterinary Pharmaceuticals & Biologics
Co-Editor, Veterinary Clinics North America, Equine Clinical Pharmacology
Coordinator, Pharmacologic Topics, Compendium of Continuing Education

Other associations and responsibilities include:

U. S. Pharmacopeial Convention
Member: General Committee of Revision
Executive Committee
Drug Information Division
Drug Standards Division
Subcommittee on Drug Distribution
Chairman: Advisory Panel on Veterinary Medicine
Drug Nomenclature Committee
American Association Accreditation of Laboratory
