Ticket Descriptions & Inclusions

Full-Week Tickets

Full-week tickets receive access to the following:

- All plenary and general lecture sessions
- Option to register for Sunday workshops for an extra cost for additional CE
- Virtual on-demand conference to view conference recordings through AnimalProfessional.com (available November 15–December 15, 2026)
  - The on-demand conference provides the opportunity to earn ACZM CE for any lecture sessions attendees may have missed in-person, including concurrent sessions (workshops are excluded). Online quizzes to earn CE on-demand are due by December 31, 2026.
- Icebreaker reception on Sunday with appetizers
- Lunch Monday–Wednesday
- Poster-exhibitor reception on Tuesday with appetizers
- Awards breakfast on Thursday
- Zoo day on Thursday, including lunch and dinner
- Online conference proceedings for duration of conference
- Whova access and profile
- Option to purchase additional guest and zoo day tickets for family

Full-week ticket holders may also attend the following closed events if eligible:

- ACZM reception (ACZM diplomates only—RSVP required within registration)
- Post-graduate training reception (post-graduate students and institutional training program representatives only—RSVP required within registration)

Please note: All full-week tickets automatically include the on-demand conference. If you are purchasing a full-week ticket, please do not purchase a separate on-demand ticket.

One-Day Tickets

One day tickets are available for attendees who would like to attend one day of the in-person conference. One-day ticket holders must specify which day they will attend.

One-day tickets include the following on their designated day:

- Plenary and general lecture sessions on selected day
- Food offerings on selected day:

- Monday: Lunch
- Tuesday: Lunch and exhibitor-poster reception appetizers
- Wednesday: Lunch
- Thursday: Awards breakfast, lunch, and dinner at Zoo Day
- Option to register for Sunday workshops for an extra cost for additional CE
- Full on-demand conference to view conference recordings through AnimalProfessional.com (available November 15–December 15, 2026)
- Poster-exhibitor reception (Tuesday tickets only)
- Online conference proceedings for duration of conference
- Whova access and profile

One-day ticket holders may also attend the following closed events if eligible, if the event falls on their designated day:

- ACZM reception (ACZM diplomates only, Wednesday only—RSVP required within registration)
- Post-graduate training reception (post-graduate students and institutional training program representatives only, Monday only)—RSVP required within registration)

We do not offer two-day tickets. If you would like to attend two or more conference days, please select a full-week ticket.

Please note: All one-day tickets automatically include the full on-demand conference. If you are purchasing a one-day ticket, please do not purchase a separate on-demand ticket.

Virtual On-Demand-Only Tickets

The virtual, on-demand conference includes all general sessions, plenary speakers, and flash talk presentations in an easy-to-access replay format. Recordings are available after the conference is complete, from November 15 through December 15, 2026—sessions are not available for livestream viewing. The following ticket types will have access to the on-demand conference:

- Full-week in-person tickets (included in ticket price)
- One-day in-person tickets (included in ticket price)
- On-demand only tickets

Participants can earn full conference CE, excluding workshops, by viewing the video recordings of lectures in full and completing corresponding quizzes. A passing quiz score of 70% is required, but you may retake the quizzes as often as needed to meet the threshold. Quizzes must be completed by December 31, 2026.

Please note that workshops and committee meeting presentations are not included in the recorded conference content. Quizzes are only mandatory if the registrant wishes to obtain CE hours from this event.

AAZV will send a link to the recordings on November 15, 2026 along with additional instructions for accessing and completing the quizzes.

Workshop-Only Tickets

Workshops tickets are for attendees who only want to participate in a Sunday workshop. Workshop-only tickets will only pay for the workshops they select within their registration.

This ticket type does not include any other CE sessions or social activities.

Full-Week Partner/Guest Tickets

Full-week partner/guest tickets may be added onto a full-week registration. Partner/guest tickets include:

- Icebreaker reception (Sunday)
- Poster-exhibitor reception (Tuesday)
- Awards breakfast (Thursday)
- Zoo day (Thursday)

Partner/guest tickets do not include access to general CE sessions, except when their partner is presenting (workshops excluded).

Zoo Day-Only Guest Ticket

Conference attendees may purchase zoo day-only guest tickets, which are available to all ages. Zoo day tickets include transportation, zoo entry, lunch, and dinner on Thursday.

- 5 yrs and under: free
- 6–12 yrs: $30
- 13 yrs and older: $50

Zoo day tickets do NOT include the awards breakfast on Thursday morning or any other CE or social activities.
