

Robert A. Halvorsen, Jr., MD

The Society of Abdominal Radiology recently learned of the death due to respiratory failure of Dr. Robert Halvorsen, friend and colleague to many within the Society. He was Professor Emeritus of Radiology at Virginia Commonwealth Medical Center at the time of his death. His specialties included Abdominal CT, Trauma CT, Virtual Colonography, Oncologic Imaging and Chest Radiology. He previously worked at University of Minnesota, UCSF, Duke and UMDNJ.