

Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame

Terms of Reference for Inductees

The Academy of Neonatal Nursing (ANN) has established a Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame. Inductees considered for the Hall of Fame are neonatal nurses who have demonstrated a lifelong commitment to nursing, influenced the path of this profession, and made a significant or lasting contribution to the nursing care or health outcome of newborns.

Criteria

The nominee:

- must be a nurse
- may be living or dead
- need not be an ANN member
- has used strategies such as innovation, patient advocacy, leadership and multidisciplinary collaboration, evidence-based practice, and education to demonstrate visionary and passionate health promotion of newborns
- has made a significant contribution of historic importance and enduring value to neonatal nursing that extends or is expected to extend beyond the nominee's lifetime

Nominating materials should include:

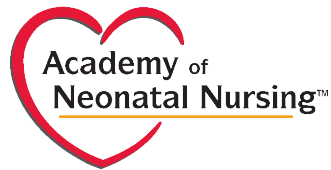

- A summary of no more than 200 words indicating why the person nominated should be considered for induction in the Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame.
- Any additional material that demonstrates why the person nominated should be considered for this honor.
- A completed nomination form.

All nominations must be submitted to The Academy of Neonatal Nursing no later than February 1st of each year. Please send all materials to:

Email: halloffame@academyofneonatalnursing.org

FAX: 707-795-0786

Mail: Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame
Academy of Neonatal Nursing
1425 N McDowell Blvd., Suite 105
Petaluma, CA 94954-6513

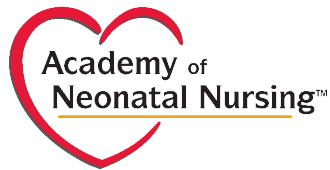

Recognition of the inductee:

Inductees will be selected by the Hall of Fame Committee and will be announced at the Academy's Spring National Advanced Practice Neonatal Nurses Conference.

- If the inductee can attend the conference, the following applies:
 - Complimentary registration at the Spring conference
 - Round-trip Coach airfare for the conference
 - One-night hotel stay at the conference hotel
 - Presentation of a plaque noting the induction of the nurse into the Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame

Selection Process

- The Academy of Neonatal Nursing's Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame Committee is made up of several ANN member volunteers and one member of the ANN Executive Committee.
- The Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame Committee members serve a 2-year term.
- The Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame Committee may select one or more individuals to be inducted into the Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame each year.
- The inductee is notified in February and inducted into the Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame at the Spring conference.
- If no nominees meet the criteria for induction in a given year, ANN's Executive Committee reserves the right to induct no nurse that year.

The Academy of Neonatal Nursing
Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame
Nomination Form

Please type or print clearly and retain a copy for your records

Nominee's Name:

Please state in no more than 200 words why the person named above should be inducted into the Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame. Please include relevant dates and describe how this person meets the criteria outlined above. You may also attach additional material (such as a CV) or note additional information (such as websites).

All nominations must be submitted to The Academy of Neonatal Nursing National Office no later than February 1st of each year.

Please send all materials to:

Email: halloffame@academyofneonatalnursing.org

FAX: 707-795-0786

Mail: Neonatal Nursing Hall of Fame
Academy of Neonatal Nursing
1425 N McDowell Blvd., Suite 105
Petaluma, CA 94954-6513

Application deadline February 1