Frequently Asked Questions

- What is the difference between on-demand sessions and live streamed sessions?
 - On-demand sessions are pre-recorded lectures that will be available at the start of the conference (September 10). You may listen to these whenever you choose.
 - Live-streamed sessions will be offered live, at a designated time (find programs here). After the conference the live-streamed sessions will be archived and available on-demand.
- I cannot view all the live sessions on the scheduled date and time, will these be available later for me to watch?
 - Yes, about two weeks after the conference you can access the archived live-streamed sessions.
- How long do I have to evaluate the sessions?
 - You have until January 31, 2021, to evaluate sessions and earn CNE credit. You have access to all recorded lectures for 1 year.
- What is the difference between full conference and the mini con?
 - The full conference offers 40 CNE contact hours and includes a complimentary one-year ANN membership. The mini con offers 20 CNE contact hours and does not include membership.
- Will there be breaks during the live recorded sessions?
 - Yes, click here to view the programs.

- When and where can I view the posters from the conference?
 - The Virtual Poster Hall will be accessible at the beginning of the conference (September 10). Attendees will have access to an event page with a link to the virtual poster hall.
- I am not very computer savvy; how do I access the conference? Do I need a code?
 - You will receive an email with instructions before the conference. We will also provide you with a phone number for tech support.
- Can I register for the conference with a group discount?
 - There is no group discount offered for this virtual conference.
- Can I attend sessions from other conferences besides the one I registered for?
 - Yes, you will have access to sessions from all three programs. You must register for one conference but can choose any session you like from any of the three programs.
