

Student Membership

Tools and resources
to learn about the collegiate conference
and events
industry and advance any career path
you take.

Career Center – The best place to find the all of the jobs and internships in the collegiate conference and events management industry.

Resume Review – Need help building your resume to land that job? Within 48 hours of opt-in, an email will be sent to you outlining your strengths, weaknesses and suggestions to ensure you have the best chance of getting interviewed!

Ask-a-Professional – Meet one-on-one with a collegiate conference and events professional to get all of your questions about a career in the industry answered.

Connections – Network with experienced professionals and fellow students to gain wisdom and insights into the field. Learn in-person at the many educational events ACCED-I members host or online on the ACCED-I website.

Real-World Learning Tools

- Access an extensive resource library including sample contracts, job descriptions, mission statements, marketing plans, and more
- Online webinars and roundtable conversations by phone on trending topics
- Overview of salaries and benefits for positions in collegiate conferencing and events

Learn more at www.acced-i.org/student