COVID-19 – Updated Summary of California State Actions

Attached is the updated state memo which reflects the Executive Order issued June 3, 2020, regarding the November elections.

Paycheck Protection Program Flexibility Act

Good news to report from our ACEC National office in Washington D.C. On June 3, 2020 the Senate has cleared HR 7010 without change, which sends the bill to the White House for the President's signature. This is the legislation we reported on previously on May 29, 2020, which extends the loan forgiveness period from 8 weeks to 24 weeks and includes other reforms. ACEC has actively been advocating for this passage.

Webinar: Employment & Prevailing Wage Law for Design Professionals

Dealey, Renton & Associates presents a complimentary Practice Management Program Webinar. This seminar will discuss two key pieces of legislation that potentially affect design professionals. First is AB 5, which deals with independent contractors and when an independent contractor will be deemed an employee. Second is AB 1768, which now requires payment of Prevailing Wage for pre-construction services.

Learning Objectives:

1. Review the new Independent Contractor Definition under California Law
2. Assess whether a Design Professionals current use of independent contractors violates California law
3. Review the new Prevailing Wage Law
4. Address application of Prevailing Wage Law and application to pre-construction services
