LEGISLATIVE ADVOCACY

ACEC CALIFORNIA SPONSORS AND ADVOCATES ON LEGISLATION THAT AFFECTS THE BUSINESS INTERESTS AND PROFESSIONAL INTEGRITY OF MEMBER FIRMS.

Legislative Efforts

Through ACEC California, members have a strong voice at all levels of government. For over 70 years, we have worked diligently to support legislation that positively impacts engineering and land surveying firms and defeat bills that would restrict our business practices, damage the business climate, and prevent design firms from competing effectively for work.

ACEC California actively monitors all state legislation. After the legislative year concludes in the fall, ACEC California releases a cumulative Report Card allowing members to clearly see where their elected officials stand on issues important to our industry and help hold them accountable.

Influencing Policy

ACEC California has several liaison committees that engage public agencies and industry partners on a variety of policy topics and provide A&E feedback. Our committees with Caltrans, the Department of Water Resources, Army Corps, High-Speed Rail, and more put our members in front of high-profile clients to collaborate on everything from conflict of interest and prevailing wage to rate escalations and procurement processes.

Legislative Visit Day

Each spring ACEC California members converge in Sacramento for our annual Legislative Visit Day (LVD), a day dedicated to advancing our members' business interests through interaction with elected officials. LVD features morning speakers, training to guide members in their meetings with legislative offices, and an evening reception. LVD offers members an invaluable opportunity to foster strong relationships, provide expert insight, and help shape legislation that promotes sustainable growth, innovation, and the advancement of California infrastructure policy.
