Encourage others at your firm to follow ACEC Indiana on social media platforms
Propose industry articles/topics of interest or suggest other social media posts
Contact legislators on issues via social media or e-mail
Sign up and participate in National Engineers Week (hosted annually in late February)
Attend ACEC Indiana Scholarship Golf Outing
Promote the ACEC Indiana Scholarship Program to collegiate contacts and co-ops/interns at your firm
Attend special “Emerging Professionals” events
Consider Internal Committees

Attend ACEC Indiana activities on a frequent basis (EEA Banquet, Scholarship Golf Outing, Networking Luncheons, Forums, National Engineers Week/Student Outreach Opportunities, etc.)
Introduce yourself to ACEC Indiana staff and Executive Committee members.
Be knowledgeable in the committee in which you intend to serve.
Volunteer/ have the primary contact at your firm submit you as a candidate for serving on a specific committee.
Attend all meetings, volunteer to serve on sub-committees/task forces, seek increased responsibilities (secretary, vice chair).

Member is a principal or decision maker at firm.
Participate in the ACEC Indiana PAC and National PAC.
Engage in state and federal advocacy initiatives. (Respond to action calls to legislators, support work at General Assembly, attend PAC check meetings/fundraisers, etc.)
Attend Summer and Winter Principals and Owners Summit.
Attend ACEC Indiana activities on a frequent basis (EEA Banquet, Scholarship Golf Outing, Networking Luncheons, Forums, National Engineers Week/Student Outreach Opportunities, etc.)
Support programs such as Engineering Leadership, trainings and Emerging Professional events.
Serve on ACEC Indiana Committees in a meaningful way, either by chairing a committee or leading a subcommittee/task force.
EXECUTIVE OFFICER APPOINTMENTS

- Understand issues facing the Association.
- Engage in ACEC National Conferences, Committee or Coalition.
- Participate in ACEC IN Principal & Owners Summits.
- Adhere to the Strategic Plan of the Association along with short term goals.
- Approve operating budget, fulfilling fiduciary responsibility to the membership.
- Identify and recruit new members.
- Contribute to and solicit contributions on behalf of ACEC Indiana PAC and National PAC.
- Assist staff in local, state and national legislative activities.
- Attend ACEC Indiana activities on a frequent basis (EEA Banquet, Scholarship Golf Outing, Networking Luncheons, Forums, National Engineers Week / Student Outreach Opportunities, etc.)
- Support programs such as Engineering Leadership, trainings and Emerging Professional events.
- Participate in the ACEC National Leadership Orientation (once slated).