ACEC/PA Announces Annual Scholarship Awardees

HARRISBURG, Pa. – American Council of Engineering Companies of Pennsylvania (ACEC/PA) has announced the winners of the 2016 Eric J. Gennuso and LeRoy D. (Bud) Loy, Jr. Scholarship. This year, three engineering students will be granted the award for recognition of their outstanding achievements while attending college, both academically and in their extracurricular activities.

Both Donald V. Gennuso (father of Eric) and LeRoy D. (Bud) Loy have made outstanding contributions to the consulting engineering industry. The Gennuso and Loy families are pleased to be able to present the scholarship awards, commemorating their family members, to these three deserving students at a ceremony being held on June 24, 2016 at 12:00 PM at the ACEC/PA office located at 800 North Third Street, Suite 301, Harrisburg, PA 17102.

The three students who have been chosen to receive the scholarship are:

Maria Raggousis (awarded $5,000): an Architectural and Civil engineering student at Drexel University, originally from Bensalem, PA.
Leilani King (awarded $2,500): a Mechanical engineering student at Gannon University, originally from St. Albans, VT.
Travis Shoemaker (awarded $2,500): a Civil and Environmental engineering student at Lafayette College, originally from Allentown, PA

For more information on ACEC/PA’s scholarship and other programs please visit us at www.acecpa.org, Twitter, and LinkedIn.

ACEC/PA is devoted exclusively to the promotion and enhancement of the business interests and profitability of consulting engineering and related firms with offices in the commonwealth. Its goal is to enable member firms to provide quality engineering services in the best interest of clients and the public.
