Invest verb (1)
in·vest | in-ˈvest; invested; investing; invests

Definition of invest transitive verb
1 : to commit (money) in order to earn a financial return
2 : to make use of for future benefits or advantages invested her time wisely
3 : to involve or engage especially emotionally were deeply invested in their children's lives

What is your definition of investing in something? As we begin our new fiscal year on July 1, we will once again ask the membership to bring a younger staff member with you to ACEC/PA events, tell those in your office or department about the many committees we have and even plan to join one or more committees yourself. We hope that you will look at those companies you work with that are not ACEC/PA Members and ask them to join. Our staff is poised to discuss all of the member benefits with not only your staff who many not be aware, but your peers and non-members.

We have so many new things planned for the 2019-2020 year and are very excited to provide even more tools and resources, education and knowledge, professional development credits, networking, relationships with clients and partners and our advocacy work.

While the summer heat draws upon us (rain is in the forecast all week for Harrisburg), we are not taking a break as we are actively planning events, committee meetings and so much more. Take time to review and distribute the ACEC/PA 2019-2020 Meetings at a Glance and Sponsorship Catalog. Registration and sponsorships for the Scholarship Golf Outing opened a few weeks ago, Diamond Awards submissions will open July 1, Scholarship applications for sophomores and juniors at a PA university studying engineering open soon and the Fall Conference registration is almost ready to go.

Take the time to bring a non-member or co-worker to an event. #InvestInYourAssociation
