Dr. Terry Zwolan to Receive ACI Alliance 2022 Lifetime Achievement Award

Terry Zwolan PhD is a clinical audiologist and researcher who served as director of the University of Michigan cochlear implant program for 31 years but her contributions and impact on the field of cochlear implantation goes far beyond Michigan. Dr. Zwolan’s clinical practice, research and mentorship has benefitted her patients and advanced our work in the larger hearing loss community. She is known for her broad knowledge of hearing loss in people of all ages, her insightful analysis of treatment and outcomes, her contributions to the body of research that has advanced our field, and her willingness to contribute wherever she was needed. Terry Zwolan is a rare individual who is recognized across various disciplines and respected by her patients and peers in the United States and around the world.

The Lifetime Achievement award recognizes the contributions over the whole of a career and for the work and accomplishments of the individual being recognized. Each year the ACI Alliance honors a person whose life work has steadfastly promoted the values and ideals that guide and inspire us and our mission as an organization. The Award will be given to Dr. Zwolan at the Opening Session of CI2022 DC on May 18.
