American Cochlear Implant Alliance maintains a website providing resources on all aspects of cochlear implantation for parents, adult consumers, students, primary care doctors, and hearing health professionals. Content is current and evidence-based.

Steps to a Cochlear Implant—Steps in the process of cochlear implantation, from evaluation to surgery to follow-up care https://www.acialliance.org/page/StepstoACochlearImplant

FAQs—Questions and answers covering our most frequent inquiries https://www.acialliance.org/page/CochlearImplant

Insurance—Health insurance for cochlear implantation includes guidance on coverage of the surgery and aftercare as well as securing insurance coverage for equipment maintenance and upgrades. Social Security as a possible source for those without health insurance coverage of cochlear implants is also addressed https://www.acialliance.org/page/Insurance

Surgery—What happens during and after the surgery https://www.acialliance.org/page/Surgery

Stories—Cochlear implants improve the quality of life for recipients and family members. These stories show how. https://www.acialliance.org/page/Stories

ACI Alliance Adult Rehabilitation Blog—Perspectives from different points of view including that of a rehabilitation therapy professional, a college student, and an older adult https://www.acialliance.org/page/ACIABlog

Music—“Will I appreciate music?” A musician and CI recipient shares his thoughts and tips on learning to listen to music https://www.acialliance.org/page/CIMusic