ACIL supports S. 2990 and H.R. 5329, Freedom from Government Competition Act of 2019, was introduced on December 5, 2019 by Rep. Steube (R-FL) and Sen. Thune (R-SD). This legislation would establish a statutory process for the review of commercial activities in the federal government. This bill does not mandate privatization; however, it does establish a process for agency review of in-house commercial activities.
