48th Annual Meeting

Strengthening American/Canadian Justice Connections

March 1-5, 2011
Sheraton Centre Toronto
Toronto, Ontario, Canada
Pursuant to the ACJS Code of Ethics and ACJS Policies, all ACJS Annual Meeting attendees should be aware of the following:

1. All attendees at the ACJS Annual Meeting shall abide by the ACJS Code of Ethics. A copy of the Code of Ethics can be found on the ACJS website, www.acjs.org.

2. No attendee shall have on his or her person a weapon of any type.

3. Any organization hosting an event in an ACJS meeting room or any Annual Meeting attendee assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, and save ACJS and its employees, officers, volunteers, and representatives from and against all claims, losses, and damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines, and attorneys fees arising out of or caused by the use of meeting or other space, excluding any liability caused by the sole negligence of the Boston Marriott Copley Place or ACJS, its employees, officers, volunteers, and representatives. This includes participation in events held at the Annual Meeting where alcohol is served.

4. No Annual Meeting attendee shall, on the grounds of race, color, religion, gender, age, handicap, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, pregnancy, or veteran status be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to, discrimination at this Annual Meeting.

5. No attendee shall be a disruptive influence in panel sessions, section meetings, or any other annual meeting events.

6. All individuals attending the Annual Meeting must pay a registration fee. Admission to all meeting events will be by badge or registration receipt only.

7. The following fees will be imposed for returned checks, and replacement badges and receipts:
   - Returned Check $20.00
   - Replacement Name Tag $ 5.00
   - Replacement Receipt $ 5.00
March 1 – 5, 2011

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER

On behalf of the Government of Ontario, I am delighted to extend warm greetings to everyone attending the 2011 Annual Meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS).

Since its founding, the dedicated members of the ACJS have played, and continue to play, a vital role in the advancement of the criminal justice sciences. The association has worked hard to promote education, research and policy analysis in criminal justice. I commend the members of this fine organization for your commitment to excellence.

As you gather with professionals from all sectors of the criminal justice system and from across the continent, I am confident that you will find this event an ideal opportunity to share ideas and expertise — and to exchange information about the latest trends and practices.

To first-time or returning visitors to Toronto — I am pleased to welcome you to Canada's largest city. I hope you find the time to enjoy some of the stellar attractions and unique events the city has to offer.

Please accept my sincere best wishes for a successful and productive conference.

Dalton McGuinty
Premier
A Message from the Mayor

I am pleased to extend greetings and a warm welcome to everyone attending the 2011 annual meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS).

An international association dedicated to fostering professional and scholarly activities in the field of criminal justice, ACJS promotes criminal justice education, research and policy analysis to both educators and practitioners.

This meeting will provide members with the opportunity to discuss and review policies and practices and share ideas focused on raising the professional level of those directly involved in the criminal justice system.

On behalf of Toronto City Council, I thank the organizers who made this event possible. Please accept my best wishes for continued success.

Yours truly,

Mayor Rob Ford
To all conference participants, a warm welcome to Toronto and our 48th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences! The overarching theme of the conference is “Strengthening American/Canadian Justice Connections.” Toronto is indeed a wonderful place for us to improve our knowledge and understanding of “All Things Criminal Justice” within the realm of our northern neighbors. Our host hotel is the Sheraton Centre, a wonderful hotel perfectly situated in an international city, a venue with numerous meeting rooms and places for you to see old colleagues, meet new friends, and hatch new plans. Conference Program Chair, Leanne Alarid, has put her heart and soul into the conference, and Mittie Southerland and Cathy Barth did another great job in selecting this site. If you see these individuals during the week, let them know how much you appreciate their attention to detail.

We have planned a number of activities for you. The Justice Quarterly and Journal of Criminal Justice Education Invitational Showcase, and the ACJS Research and Pictorial Showcase will be the featured sessions on Friday, March 4 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. We also have arranged for three unique workshops (evaluation research, distance education technologies, and the ACJS certification process) on topics that will be important to the Academy for years to come. Please take advantage of these workshops if you can.

To learn more about the Canadian Justice System, we have scheduled a prison tour, tours of several City Halls, and the Toronto Police have opened their doors to us for ride alongs. We cannot thank enough the public officials who approved our requests and we appreciate their generosity and hospitality - more things for you to think about and to get scheduled.

Arrangements have also been made for the premiere presentation of the play “Who is the Enemy?” written by Judge H. Lee Sarokin. Judge Sarokin and Dr. Rubin “Hurricane” Carter will be part of a panel after the play to field questions.

If you find the conference too busy for yourself, take a break and visit the underground shopping complex where there are over 1,200 stores. Numerous additional events have been planned and Leanne has done everything possible to make this year’s conference a memorable event. Please take advantage of the city, the hotel, and as many activities as you can. Thanks for your participation and enjoy your time in Toronto.

Sincerely,

James W. Marquart
President, ACJS
Welcome to the 48th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. I am pleased to present you with a quality educational program of over 360 events that allows for professional development and personal growth for all participants--faculty, students, and practitioners.

This year’s conference theme is about strengthening justice connections between Canada and the U.S. The program committee has assembled 20 different panels and roundtables comprised of participants from Canada and the U.S. to discuss differing perspectives and how we can achieve these connections in areas such as crime prevention, youth gangs, crime analysis, internet crime, organized crime, victim research, human rights, wrongful convictions, offenders with mental illnesses, and correctional interventions such as drug/mental health courts. Look for these special events in the program, titled as: Conference Theme Panels/Roundtables.

We are extremely privileged to be hosting a premiere event with Red Car Productions entitled: “Who is the Enemy?” This live play begins Thursday at 4:00 pm. (theatre opens at 3:30-- come early for a good seat!). The audience will be given an opportunity to text their vote on their cell phones. The play is followed by a panel discussion featuring special guests Rubin “Hurricane” Carter (who was acquitted after being wrongfully convicted) and Judge H. Lee Sarokin (the judge who freed Carter). The play is an educational tool that could be adopted by other colleges and universities that have a criminal justice/criminology department and a theater department.

We have many interesting poster sessions during our Research and Pictorial Showcase event on Friday from 11:00 am-12:30 pm. Along with traditional panels and roundtables, we have added “open seminars” as a new format for practical hands-on experiences during the conference.

The keynote address is being delivered by Dr. Peter Andreas of Brown University. Dr. Andreas will be speaking on “Policing Illicit Cross-Border Flows in North America: Past, Present, and Future.” We have five quality “Author Meets Critics” sessions on recently published books in the field, so I encourage you to attend as many events as possible.

The Local Arrangements Committee has lined up a fabulous prison tour, two guided walking tours with a local historian, and evening ride-alongs with Toronto Police Services. For students, we are offering useful workshops, open seminars, and student luncheons. Come by the Employment Exchange to enter your chance to win an Amazon gift card. We'll have daily drawings and a finale at the Awards ceremony where you do need to be present to win.

I am honored to have served ACJS and work with so many motivated volunteers of the Program committee, the Local Arrangements committee and others who came forward to lend a hand—it is all of us together that help make this conference a success. In the spirit of the conference theme, I close with a special phrase that originated with aboriginal peoples throughout North America (Inuit, First Nations, Metis, and Native American tribes). That phrase is “Mitakuye oyasin” [Mee-tah-koo-yah O-yah-seen] and it translates to “all my relations.” It is an acknowledgement that despite our differences, we are all related and universally connected to one another and to the Earth. Have a great time at the conference.

Cheers!

The ACJS Employment Exchange (EE), located at Sheraton Hall 5, will open on Wednesday, March 2, at 12:00 pm and close at 5:00 pm. On Thursday, March 3, and Friday, March 4, the EE will open from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. The EE will not be open on Saturday.

Printed copies of position announcements and candidate listings will be in binders for review. Position and candidate listings will be accepted onsite at the Annual Meeting. All announcements and candidate materials submitted during the meeting must be 3-hole punched. For onsite submissions, institutional representatives should bring 10 copies. Electronic submissions will not be accepted. There is no charge for position announcements or candidate services.

Tables and chairs that institutions and candidates can use for employment-related discussions will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Institutions may wish to consider bringing a tabletop placard to make it easier for candidates to locate representatives. Institutions also are advised to determine in advance their interview/discussion schedule (i.e., who will be available on what days at what times). Interview/discussion sign-up sheets will be made available for posting, and this operation works on a self-service basis. ACJS will also have folders for Spring & Fall 2011 Prospective Positions in Criminal Justice. Conference attendees are asked to provide availability and contact information to EE staff who will post availability and contact information of both parties. It is the responsibility of those parties to schedule a meeting, and provide that information to EE staff who will reserve a table for the meeting.

To facilitate communication between prospective employers and job candidates, materials for self-service messages are made available. Candidates and institutions should check the board regularly. Also, since there is no way to insure that messages will be received or delivered, institutions should consider providing contact information for representatives (e.g., name and hotel) to EE staff.

Thanks to the generous donation of the University of Texas—San Antonio, eight $50 Amazon.com gift cards will be raffled to candidates who bring their curriculum vitae to the Employment Exchange (EE) or otherwise participate in EE events. Only registered ACJS conference attendees are eligible and only one entry per attendee is allowed. Drawings for five of the cards will be at the Employment Exchange and winner MUST be present to win.

Raffle location will be in front of the entrance to the EE at Sheraton Hall 5, at the following times: Wednesday, 3:20 pm; Thursday, 9:20 am and 3:20 pm; and Friday, 10:50 am and 3:20 pm. Drawings for the remaining three cards will be at the end of the Awards Ceremony on Friday night, and winners MUST be present to win.

On Thursday, March 3, at 9:30 am, Jim Ruiz, Associate Professor of Criminal Justice—Penn State Harrisburg, will make a presentation entitled “Tips for a Successful Job Interview.” This is a MUST for all those who are or will be soon entering the job market.

Minority Mentorship Grant Award
Mitchell B. Chamlin, Mentor; Georgen Guerrero, Mentee
The 2011 Outstanding Mentor awards are given for significant contributions to the professional development of student and colleagues:

Peter Benekos, Mercyhurst College
“Dr. Benekos has great rapport with his students, and he is an excellent teacher. He has also mentored colleagues at Mercyhurst and in ACJS. Dr. Benekos is truly an outstanding mentor, colleague, teacher, and friend.”

Richard Bennett, American University
“He leads by example and is always willing to share his expertise and support new colleagues … His influence on others has been profound. His inclusive approach towards his colleagues provides further evidence of his outstanding qualities as a mentor.”

Julius Debro, University of Washington
“When I think of a mentor, Dr. Julius Debro immediately comes to mind. Dr. Debro is the gift that keeps on giving.”

Shaun Gabidoff, Penn State Harrisburg
“His mentoring afforded me the motivation to develop a defined work ethic and approach to my life goals. As I look back over my academic and professional career, he has been a guiding light every step of the way; what an exceptional and precious gift he has been.”

“Dr. Gabbidon has a record of outstanding mentoring service that goes beyond the requirements of his duties and responsibilities as a professor.”

Helen Taylor Greene, Texas Southern University
“As a graduate student, it was refreshing to find that Dr. Greene was easy to approach and didn’t dismiss any of my ideas.”

“Overall, Dr. Greene has proven herself to be one of the best mentors I have been fortunate to encounter. She always has the career development of her mentees and their success as her top priority.”

George Higgins, University of Louisville
“… when I think of a “mentor” is George Higgins. Simply, George exemplifies the meaning of a mentor. I respect George as a brilliant scholar and cherish our friendship, but, most importantly, I thank him for his mentorship.”

Nicholas P. Lovrich, Washington State University
“Nick has mentored countless master and doctoral level graduate students and junior faculty members over the years … they are modeling Nick’s excellent mentorship practices and teaching approaches for their own students.”

“Twenty years after he chaired my dissertation committee he is still mentoring me.”

James Marquart, University of Texas at Dallas
“Dr. Marquart’s style of mentorship allowed me to navigate the barriers of a significant research project and learn from the experience myself.”

“Dr. Marquart was an amazing mentor to me, and his help and guidance were invaluable. Were it not for him, I’m not sure where I’d be … Jim is more than a mentor, he is my friend.”

Lee Ross, University of Central Florida
“I do not know of anyone who is more deserving of the 2011 ACJS Outstanding Mentor Awards, than Dr. Ross. He is always very supportive, encouraging and generous with his time and resources. He is a man of high integrity and is a natural mentor.”

Barbara Sims, Penn State Harrisburg
“As a mentor, she not only guides her colleagues and students along their chosen paths, but also provides them the incentive, motivation and knowledge to pursue potential opportunities they may have missed along the way.”

“Perhaps her greatest mode of mentorship for students and faculty is through modeling it.”

“If you show motivation and interest, you will find the most ardent supporter in this exceptional woman.”
In Memoriam

JOHN J. VOLLMANN, JR., PH.D.

Lifetime Member of the Southern Criminal Justice Association, Dr. John J. Vollmann, Jr., passed away on July 13, 2010. He is survived by his wife, Marian; son, J.J.; and daughter, Andrea Gresham (Scott). Since 2008, he served as the National Chair of the School of Criminal Justice for ITT Technical Institute (Indianapolis, Indiana). Prior to this position, he retired from his teaching duties at Miami-Dade Community College, School of Safety Administration, in Miami, Florida.

He received his Ph.D. in 1992 from Walden University and was a lifetime member of the American Society of Criminology, Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, Southern Association of Criminal Justice, Northeast Association of Criminal Justice, and a long time member of the American Correctional Association, American Jail Association, and International Association of Chiefs of Police.

During his life as an academic, his research and publication interests involved the areas of Serial Murder and Serial Rape Profiling, Hostage Negotiations, Crowd Management, and Riot and Disorder Prevention in Prisons.

On a personal note, I initially met John in 1989 as a graduate student at my first Southern Criminal Justice Association conference in Jacksonville Beach, Florida. I was introduced to him by my college mentor and then President of the SCJA, Dr. Reid H. Montgomery, Jr. In those early days, Reid, John, and I, worked together conducting a national study of what would eventually become our book on the early history of American Prison Violence and Riots. Since then I knew that I could always turn to John for a good cigar, libation, and prison story!

As the current Secretariat for the SCJA, I would also like to note to our membership that John is the first in our history of our 20 lifetime members to pass.

John, you will be missed, R.I.P.

Keynote Address:

“Policing Illicit Cross-Border Flows in North America: Past, Present and Future”

Peter Andreas is professor of political science at Brown University, where he also holds a joint appointment with the Watson Institute for International Studies. He was previously a research fellow at the Brookings Institution, an SSRC-MacArthur Foundation fellow on international peace and security, and an academy scholar at Harvard’s Weatherhead Center for International Affairs. Andreas is the author, co-author, or co-editor of eight books. This includes Border Games: Policing the U.S.-Mexico Border (Cornell University Press, 2nd edition, 2009), The Rebordering of North America: Integration and Exclusion in a New Security Context (co-editor, Routledge Press, 2003), Policing the Globe: Criminalization and Crime Control in International Relations (co-author, Oxford University Press, 2006); The Wall Around the West: State Borders and Immigration Controls in North America and Europe (co-editor, Rowman & Littlefield, 1999), and Drug War Politics (co-author, University of California Press, 1996). He has also written for a wide variety of scholarly and policy publications, including International Security, Political Science Quarterly, Foreign Policy, World Policy Journal, Current History, The New Republic, and The Nation, as well as op-eds in newspapers such as The Washington Post and the Boston Globe and testimonies before the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives. Andreas is currently writing a book about the politics of smuggling in American history, tentatively titled, Smuggler Nation: Illicit Trade and the Making of America (to be published by Oxford University Press). He received his BA from Swarthmore College and MA and PhD from Cornell University.
Red Car Producers and the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences present

Who is the Enemy?

Enemy is a provocative new play that puts a fictional U.S. president on trial against an American Afghan professor thrown in prison as an enemy combatant. The play’s written by Retired U.S. Judge H. Lee Sarokin.

Judge Sarokin, now a vigorous blogger with The Huffington Post, has spent his entire career writing about civil liberties and justice. He was a litigator for 25 years when President Jimmy Carter first appointed him to the U.S. Third District Court for New Jersey. Later, President Bill Clinton appointed him to the Court of Appeal. In his 17 years on the Federal bench, he settled 3,000 cases.

He took on Big Tobacco before it was fashionable, and famously freed boxer Dr. Rubin ‘Hurricane’ Carter after almost 20 years in prison on a writ of habeas corpus.

In his foreword to Enemy, Judge Sarokin wrote:

“This play, and the trial portrayed in it, is purely fictional. This is particularly so because no person who claims to have been wrongly accused and imprisoned for being an alleged terrorist, denied all rights… subjected to extraordinary rendition and torture… has ever been permitted to proceed to trial.

“The play asks the audience acting as a jury to deliberate and decide a case, which pits liberty against security…”

When asked why he wrote the play, Judge Sarokin said: “… I’ve always been a staunch believer in individual rights. I was very concerned that the Bush administration was interfering and reducing those rights under the guise of security and through the use of fear. I think that the conflict between security and liberty is a serious one and certainly ongoing…”

This live premiere of Who Is The Enemy? is being presented to the ACJS convention at the Sheraton in Toronto March 3.

The play is being put on by Red Car Producers, a Toronto film and television company, in collaboration with the ACJS. A panel is scheduled after the play with special guests Judge Sarokin, and Dr. Rubin Carter.
ANNUAL MEETING PRESENTATION CATEGORIES

Panels
A Panel consists of four or five presenters of written papers and a panel chair. Presenters make formal presentations of completed works. The Panel chair opens and closes the session and coordinates questions and comments from the audience.

Conference Theme Panels focus specifically on the 2011 Annual Meeting theme, “Strengthening American/Canadian Justice Connections” and highlight academics and practitioners from Canada, the U.S., and other countries.

Feature Panels are panels that are likely to be of special interest to a wide audience or may feature one or more special guests.

Student Panels are composed of all-student presenters. Student Panels are on a variety of topical areas, and are designed to facilitate initial presentations in a supportive and welcoming environment.

Author Meets Critics
Author Meets Critics is a moderated discussion between the author(s) of a recent scholarly published work and three or four critics of the work’s methodology and findings.

Roundtables
A Roundtable is an open discussion of a topic, organized by a moderator and involving several individual discussants with special knowledge or expertise in the topic area. Discussants can be academics, practitioners, or students. No formal papers are presented. Often the discussion concerns diverse viewpoints or findings in a topic area.

Feature Roundtables are roundtables of special interest to a wide audience or may feature one or more special guests.

Conference Theme Roundtables focus specifically on the 2011 Annual Meeting theme, “Strengthening American/Canadian Justice Connections.” and highlight academics and practitioners from Canada, the U.S., and other countries that discuss the topic area.

Student Roundtables are composed of all-student presenters. Student Roundtables are on a variety of topical areas, and are designed to facilitate initial presentations in a supportive and welcoming environment.

Open Seminar
An Open Seminar involves one or more presenters on more practical educational opportunities on such topics as looking for funding, grant writing, finding a job, developing course syllabi, or becoming a new department chair. Open seminars can also be hands-on experiences that involve the audience as participants, such as mock job interviews or victim offender mediations. An Open Seminar is in a different format than a roundtable or panel, because there are no discussants and no scholarly papers presented. All Open Seminars are open to all conference participants with no advance registration required.

Feature Open Seminars are open seminars of special interest.

Research and Pictorial Showcase
The Research and Pictorial Showcase is a collection of visual displays of research that encourages informal interaction between authors and audience. This event occurs Friday, 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Workshop
A workshop involves one or more presenters on a specific topic. Workshops have limited seating for more individualized attention. To attend a workshop, participants must register in advance and submit advance payment, if required.

On behalf of the 2010-2011 ACJS Student Affairs Committee, I would like to formally welcome student attendees to the 2011 ACJS Annual Meeting. Consolidated below are events that may be of interest to you during your stay in Toronto. Be sure to see the full program for events/panels/roundtables relating to your individual interests.

Darin Haerle (UC-Irvine), student representative for the Student Affairs Committee, would like to invite all student attendees to a “meet and greet” at Traders in the conference hotel on Thursday, March 3, 2011, from 6:00-8:00 pm. This informal event is meant to provide student attendees a time to come together and network with one another to establish relationships that may reach well into the future.

For attractions outside of the conference, be sure to consult the Toronto tourism booklet included with your registration materials. You can also check with the concierge in the hotel lobby for information about locations that may be worth visiting during your stay.

On behalf of the Students Affairs Committee, I would like to wish you a productive and enjoyable time at the 2011 ACJS Annual Meeting!

Ashley G. Blackburn
Chair, ACJS Student Affairs Committee

The Criminal Investigative Function
A Guide for New Investigators
by Joseph L. Giacalone

Now! A book on criminal investigations that rises above the rest—candid, practical guidance and advice from a seasoned professional whose skill and experience drove him to the top investigatory ranks.

• Real-world insights into the truth about criminal investigations—the real challenges, responsibilities and opportunities—and key factors that make new investigators good and good investigators great.

• An exploration of search & seizure case law to gain a thorough understanding of the legalities that have direct relevance to criminal investigators and their work.

• Recommendations on establishing protocols for handling crime scenes—from responding to and securing the scene to keeping a solid chain of custody, and everything in between.

• Guidance on proven strategies for conducting effective interviews and techniques for successful interrogations.

• Expert advice on how to best prepare for trial.

*Bonus! To facilitate thorough comprehension and better retention, each chapter includes a helpful list of questions for discussion and review.

New or forthcoming titles and editions!

Stan Stojkovic, John Klofas, and David Kalinich, eds.
Fourteen new articles and the strongest pieces from prior editions make this the most up-to-date and authoritative compendium that addresses issues confronting today’s administrators and staffs.

Delinquency and Juvenile Justice in American Society, 2nd ed.
Randall G. Shelden
Shelden merges foundational information—historical context and theoretical perspectives—with up-to-date coverage of the nature and extent of delinquency, including female delinquency and the role of inequality.

Gang Redux: A Balanced Anti-Gang Strategy
James Diego Vigil
This concise text shows how replacing street socialization with programs involving families, schools, and law enforcement can be a logical way to tackle the roots of the gang problem.

Our Punitive Society: Race, Class, Gender, and Punishment in America
Randall G. Shelden
Challenging conventional thinking about crime and punishment, Shelden identifies the macroeconomic forces relevant to imprisonment—poverty and political powerlessness—and explores viable and humane alternatives to our current incarceration binge.

Readings in White-Collar Crime, 2nd ed.
David Shichor, Larry Gaines, and Andrea Schoepfer, eds.
The extensively revised collection contains twenty-two articles (ten written for the second edition). Topics include women and white-collar crime, “looting” in corporations, crimes related to the sub-prime crisis, environmental crime, and terrorism.

Theorizing Criminal Justice: Eight Essential Orientations, 2nd ed.
Peter B. Kraska and John J. Brent, eds.
Twenty articles, organized by eight theoretical perspectives, illustrate the complex nature of criminal justice along with the theories that have informed various practices and the intellectual underpinnings of each.

Building Modern Criminology
Forays and Skirmishes
David F. Greenberg,
New York University
Pioneers in Contemporary Criminology
Builder Modern Criminology collects four decades of theoretical essays and research papers by David Greenberg. The papers take up critical questions in the study of crime, including the explanation of group differences, the nature of criminal careers, and historical trends in violence. This volume is indispensable for working criminological researchers engaging with cutting-edge issues in contemporary criminology.

Civil Rights in Wartime
The Post-9/11 Sikh Experience
Dawinder S. Sidhu and Neha Singh Gohil
“... a much-needed and valuable contribution to our awareness of how times of war can all too often obscure even the most fundamental liberties. Raised in the Japanese-American internment camps during WWII, I second the authors’ call for increased vigilance. The Sikh-American experience must be our last, not merely our latest, breach of civil rights. We can, and must, do better.”
—Michael Honda, United States Congressman, California

New Edition of Best-Selling Text a Must for Students

Correctional Assessment, Casework and Counseling, 5th Edition
Anthony Walsh, Ph.D., and Mary K. Stohr, Ph.D.

This new edition covers the latest findings in biology and what they mean for individuals working in corrections; practical interviewing and counseling skills, including motivational interviewing; how to adapt counseling theories to community or institutional corrections; and how to supervise the alcoholic, drug addict, sex offender, schizophrenic, mentally ill and mentally deficient client. The authors explain the differences among several counseling strategies and provide readers with opportunities to practice their skills. Presentence reports, sentencing guidelines, classification scales, risk and needs scales, and scoring documents give readers an understanding of the actual assessment process. Walsh and Stohr include a section on the legal issues involved in counseling these individuals, and a new chapter on therapeutic communities provides guidance on what works in these settings. Each of the 22 chapters includes a “Perspectives from the Field” essay that provides real-world commentary from correctional practitioners. An extensive index enables students and researchers to hone in on topics of interest. An instructor’s manual is available. (2010, 640 pages, index, 978-1-56991-307-9)

“Anthony Walsh and Mary Stohr’s well-defined and understandable correctional counseling text on theory as well as practical application not only helped my students grasp these relationships quite satisfactorily, according to student feedback, the book also raised their confidence levels and desire to work with offenders. For these reasons among many, it is fitting that I recommend the newest edition of Walsh and Stohr’s Correctional Assessment Casework & Counseling.”

Overview of ACJS

The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences is an international organization established in 1963 to foster professional and scholarly activities in the field of criminal justice. ACJS promotes scholarly research and professional activities within the discipline of criminal justice for both educators and practitioners. The Academy also provides a forum for disseminating ideas related to issues in research, policy, education, and practice within the field. Additionally, the Academy offers sections that address special interests of the members.

The Academy attributes its success in creating this dynamic professional association to the composition of its membership. ACJS is comprised of members from a variety of backgrounds including:

♦ Scholars who are international in scope and multidisciplinary in orientation,
♦ Professionals from all sectors of the criminal justice system, and
♦ Students seeking to explore the criminal justice field as future scholars or practitioners.

Through the vital interchange of ideas among these groups, ACJS members develop and share knowledge about critical issues regarding crime, criminal and social justice.

Membership Advantages

♦ Online subscription to Justice Quarterly, a journal published six times per year, devoted to the development of knowledge in the broad area of criminal justice. While the field of criminal justice is the primary focus of Justice Quarterly, scholarship and research in related areas are solicited. The journal provides a multidisciplinary forum for scholars using diverse methodologies to disseminate knowledge and innovations about justice issues and processes.
♦ Online subscription to the Journal of Criminal Justice Education, a quarterly journal devoted to criminal justice education and teaching.

As a current Ph.D. student in the Criminal Justice or Criminology field, the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences offers you a ONE YEAR FREE MEMBERSHIP. This offer is good at any time BEFORE you graduate. Even if you are already a member, you can use this offer to cover your membership for one year while you are a doctoral student.

The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences is an international organization established in 1963 to foster professional and scholarly activities in the field of criminal justice. ACJS promotes scholarly research and professional activities within the discipline of criminal justice for both educators and practitioners. The Academy also provides a forum for disseminating ideas related to issues in research, policy, education, and practice within the field. Additionally, the Academy offers sections that address special interests of the members.

The Academy attributes its success in creating this dynamic professional association to the composition of its membership. ACJS is comprised of members from a variety of backgrounds including:

♦ Scholars who are international in scope and multidisciplinary in orientation,
♦ Professionals from all sectors of the criminal justice system, and
♦ Students seeking to explore the criminal justice field as future scholars or practitioners.

Through the vital interchange of ideas among these groups, ACJS members develop and share knowledge about critical issues regarding crime, criminal and social justice. For more information, please visit our website at www.acjs.org.

Membership Advantages
(Included in the One-Year Free Membership)

♦ Online subscription to Justice Quarterly, a journal published six times per year, devoted to the development of knowledge in the broad area of criminal justice. The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Certification Standards for Academic Programs were approved May 2, 2005 and amended October 28, 2005 by the ACJS Executive Board. The goal of ACJS in adopting these Standards and implementing a Certification Review process is to measurably improve the quality of criminal justice education. For several years, ACJS had Minimum Standards for Criminal Justice Education and these standards were used in a peer review process through ACJS Academic Review. The new standards and process represent an evolution from “peer review” to “certification”. The ACJS Certification is designed to evaluate evidence-based compliance with the Certification Standards.

What do we mean by compliance with standards? The ACJS Executive Board will Certify those programs that undergo ACJS Certification Review and that have demonstrated, through substantive, credible evidence, the program meets or exceeds all parts of every standard. The emphasis is on evidence, not intention. Programs are required to provide evidence of program quality & effectiveness based on program outcome assessment.

The Certification Standards are broken into nine sections, each of which has specific Standards and Recommended Indicators. The sections are:

- A: Program Mission & History
- B: Program Structure & Curriculum
- C: Faculty
- D: Admission & Articulation
- E: Resources
- F: Student Services
- G: Integrity
- H: Program Quality & Effectiveness
- I: Branch Campuses, Additional Locations, and Other Instructional Sites

The Certification Standards for Academic Programs and Process for Undergoing Review are available for Associate, Baccalaureate, and Master’s degree programs. You can access these Standards at the following web addresses:

- Associate Degree Process and Standards - http://www.acjs.org/pubs/167_667_12020.cfm
- Master’s Degree Process and Standards - http://www.acjs.org/pubs/167_667_12024.cfm

The Application for Program Certification and other documents can also be downloaded from the Certification page on the ACJS website: http://www.acjs.org/pubs/167_667_3517.cfm

NOTE: All papers presented at the 2012 ACJS Annual Meeting are to be original works never before published, printed, or accepted for presentation elsewhere.

All attendees at the ACJS Annual Meeting shall abide by the ACJS Code of Ethics. A copy of the Code of Ethics can be found on the ACJS website, www.acjs.org.

Program Guidelines

All program participants are required to pre-register for the conference and to provide their own transportation and meeting expenses. The form for downloading and submitting pre-registration is available at www.acjs.org on the Annual Meeting page of the website.

Abstracts should be submitted only once via the ACJS website. DO NOT SEND ABSTRACTS DIRECTLY TO THE TOPIC AREA CHAIRS. If you have questions about your submission, please send them to the Program Chair, Heather Pfeifer, at acjs2012@ubalt.edu

LCD projectors will be available in the meeting rooms. No laptops/computers or overhead projectors will be provided. Additional audio/video equipment is the responsibility of the presenter. Individuals wanting additional equipment must either bring their own equipment to the conference or make arrangements through the hotel for equipment rental.

ACJS Program Participation Options

Research Showcase

The Research Showcase is a collection of visual displays of research that encourages informal interaction between authors and audience. The primary author of a Research Showcase presentation must be in attendance and committed to standing near his or her presentation throughout the allotted Friday 10:00 a.m. – noon session. The Research Showcase will not compete against any other panels and will be the feature session on Friday.

Paper Presentations

Panels consist of four or five presenters of written papers and a panel chair. Presenters make formal presentations of completed works. The panel chair opens and closes the session and coordinates questions and comments from the audience. Participants who select this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference.

Roundtables

Roundtables are open discussions of a topic, organized by a moderator and involving several individual discussants with special knowledge or expertise in the topic area. No formal papers are presented. Often the discussion concerns diverse viewpoints or findings in a topic area.
Complete Panels
A complete panel consists of coordinating the arrangement of four papers related to a common theme. The person facilitating the complete panel must include a panel chair, panel title, and four papers with all supporting information for the papers at the time of submission to the website. Participants involved in this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference.

Student Authored Paper Panels
Undergraduate and graduate student authors may submit their papers to a regular topical area of their choice where they will present with other faculty and practitioners. However, students have the option to submit their papers for presentation on an all-student panel. These panels are on a variety of topical areas, and are designed to facilitate initial presentations in a supportive and welcoming environment. Participants who select this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference. Students who select this option should send to a “student panel” and NOT to a topical area.

Submission Procedures
All submissions must be made via the ACJS webpage: http://www.acjs.org. The submission system for the 2012 annual meeting will be available by June 1, 2011 and submissions are requested by September 10, 2011. The absolute final deadline for submissions is October 1, 2011. Do not send submissions directly to the individual committee members. Please note that the ACJS Annual Program book is created from the information you submit online. To reduce the number of errors in the program, please review and verify that all the information you enter into the submission form is complete and correct before you click the submit button. Please be sure that the first and last names are in the appropriate places.

Before beginning the submission process, please have all the following required information available. All submissions must include:

1. Submission Type (Click on the appropriate submission type): research showcase, paper presentation, roundtable, complete panel, or student panel. When submitting a complete panel, please enter the chair information and information for up to four papers.
2. Title of paper, research showcase presentation, roundtable or complete panel.
3. An abstract of no more than 100 words must be submitted for each paper and roundtable. An abstract should be included for each paper on the complete panels. When submitting a complete panel, the chair’s form will include requested times and dates for the panel. This is a benefit of putting together a complete panel.
4. Contact information for each author, presenter, chair, etc. [Note: Paper submissions are limited to the presenter and five co-authors.]
