50th Annual Meeting

The Politics of Crime and Criminal Justice

March 19-23, 2013
Sheraton Dallas Hotel
Dallas, Texas
Pursuant to the ACJS Code of Ethics and ACJS Policies, all ACJS Annual Meeting attendees should be aware of the following:

1. All attendees at the ACJS Annual Meeting shall abide by the ACJS Code of Ethics. A copy of the Code of Ethics can be found on the ACJS website, www.acjs.org.

2. No attendee shall have on his or her person a weapon of any type, except for sworn law enforcement officers who are required by state or federal law to carry a weapon.

3. Any organization hosting an event in an ACJS meeting room or any Annual Meeting attendee assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, and save ACJS and its employees, officers, volunteers, and representatives from and against all claims, losses, and damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines, and attorneys fees arising out of or caused by the use of meeting or other space, excluding any liability caused by the sole negligence of the conference host hotel or ACJS, its employees, officers, volunteers, and representatives. This includes participation in events held at the Annual Meeting where alcohol is served.

4. No Annual Meeting attendee shall, on the grounds of race, color, religion, gender, age, handicap, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, pregnancy, veteran status, or previous incarceration be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to, discrimination at this Annual Meeting.

5. No person shall be subject to sexual harassment in ACJS-related programs and activities. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, physical or verbal abuse of a sexual nature including graphic commentaries about an individual’s body, sexually degrading remarks used to describe an individual, or unwelcome propositions and physical advances of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment also includes the threat or insinuation that lack of sexual submission will be used as a basis for decisions affecting or interfering with an individual’s organizational standing.

6. No attendee shall be a disruptive influence in panel sessions, Section meetings, or any other Annual Meeting events.

7. All individuals attending the Annual Meeting must pay a registration fee. Admission to all meeting events will be by badge or registration receipt only.

8. The following fees will be imposed for returned checks, and replacement badges and receipts:
   - Returned Check $20.00
   - Replacement Name Tag $5.00
Greetings:

As Governor of Texas, I am pleased to welcome you to the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences’ 50th Annual Conference.

Crime is a scourge on our society, tearing apart the lives of far too many Americans. Thankfully, our nation is made stronger by the dedicated criminal justice and corrections professionals working to keep our communities safe. I commend all in attendance for your commitment to education, professional development and collaboration in the field of criminal justice.

To all present from out of town, Dallas is renowned for its many cultural and entertainment attractions. I encourage you to explore and enjoy everything this fine city has to offer.

First Lady Anita Perry joins me in sending best wishes for an enjoyable and productive conference.

Sincerely,

Rick Perry
Governor
March 2013

On behalf of the citizens of Dallas and my colleagues on the Dallas City Council, welcome to the Big “D,” for the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences 50th Annual Meeting!

The Dallas Convention & Visitors Bureau, our hospitality industry and Sheraton Dallas Hotel have dedicated themselves to creating an outstanding experience for you. If you haven’t visited recently, do know that this isn’t the Dallas of yesteryear. It is a 21st century city with more than $15 billion in economic development, providing new venues that we hope you’ll explore in your free moments and many others that will debut steadily in the coming years. Wherever you turn, you’ll find yourself taking the “Dallas Doubletake.” Dallas is back – and back in a big way.

Dallas is the ninth-largest city in the nation, a leading convention destination and the No. 1 visitor destination in Texas. With cultural arts, dining, shopping, hotels at all price ranges, easy accessibility, five professional sports leagues, a healthy economy and Fortune 500 headquarters, Dallas offers every ingredient as a vibrant convention destination featuring unique venues, entertainment and potential speakers.

Enjoy your stay. Our city is at your service!

Best regards,

Michael S. Rawlings
Mayor
On behalf of ACJS President Craig Hemmens and the over 100 members of the 2013 Program Committee, I would like to personally welcome you to the 50th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. I’m told that everything is bigger in the great state of Texas, and we are excited to have such a big program planned in Dallas for our Golden Anniversary. My hope is that you will be equally as excited with your experiences during this Annual Meeting. This year’s theme is “The Politics of Crime and Criminal Justice,” and we have a stacked program, full of plenaries, feature panels, presentations, and events that highlight that theme. As you will see when browsing through the program, we have put together a very full agenda of events covering a wide range of topics and including a variety of formats.

You may note that this year’s program highlights three Presidential Invited Speakers. The first is Dallas District Attorney Craig Watkins, who established a “Conviction Integrity Unit” tasked with reviewing claims of wrongful convictions in Dallas County, TX. Next is David Dow, a noted author and capital appeals attorney who has represented a number of Texas death row inmates and who has written several books on the issue. Finally, we have Rachel Toor, author of a regular column on writing and publishing for the Chronicle of Higher Education (and Running Times).

Friday’s focus will again be the Research and Pictorial Showcase, which is an outstanding collection of scholarship and research presented in poster session format. We are pleased to display over 110 poster presentations along with an impressive brunch available to all participants and attendees. To insure that all conference attendees can visit and enjoy the Research and Pictorial Showcase, we have minimal competing events scheduled during that time period (from 11:00 am – 12:15 pm).

Another part of the program we are very excited about is the series of Open Seminars that will be featured throughout the week. These 75-minute instructional sessions will focus on issues related to professional development for faculty and students. Some of the topics covered will include Online Survey Design and Administration; Teaching Criminal Justice With Social Media and Technology; Conducting International Research; Balancing Motherhood and the Academy; and Challenges and Solutions for Faculty of Color Working Toward Tenure. Each session will be facilitated by individuals with extensive experience and knowledge on the topic covered. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Are you tired of carrying around those cumbersome and heavy program books? We have an app for that! For the first time ever the entire ACJS program will be available on your smart phone or other electronic device with an online application. This year you will be able to browse, search, and view the entire program from the comfort and convenience of your handheld device. We are very excited about this change.

Finally, I would be remiss if I failed to recognize my colleagues and administrators at Fayetteville State University for their support and assistance over the last 18 months. A special thanks goes out to my graduate assistant, Joshua Pillow, for his tireless work. Without you all, I would not have been able to do a fraction of what was needed to be done. I would also like to give my heart-felt appreciation to my deputy co-chairs Nicole Piquero and Christine Famega, and the 100+ members of the 2013 Program Committee. I am grateful for their service to me and the Academy.

To all participants of the 50th Anniversary of the ACJS Annual Meeting: Thank you for attending and for helping make this one of the best ever ACJS annual meetings. Finally, a special acknowledgement to Craig Hemmens for entrusting me with the task of being your Program Chair. This experience has been truly rewarding. Thank you!

Lorenzo M. Boyd
2013 ACJS Program Chair
Welcome to the ACJS 2013 Conference in Dallas, Texas! As you are no doubt well aware, they do things bigger in Texas, and I trust you will find we are doing this conference up big this year. This year, 2013, marks the 50th Anniversary of the creation of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. To commemorate this special occasion, every person who registers for the conference will receive a both a book on the history of ACJS (written by ACJS Historian Will Oliver), and a t-shirt noting the 50th Anniversary. There will also be a Past Presidents Panel on Wednesday afternoon, followed by a Presidents Reception.

My Program Chair, Lorenzo Boyd, and the members of the Program Committee have put together an outstanding slate of panels, roundtables, and events. The conference theme is “The Politics of Crime and Criminal Justice” and we have a number of panels that highlight this theme. These panels, which are drawn from each topic area, are all located in rooms near the Exhibit Hall. These panels will include paper presentations and roundtable discussions; what makes them a bit unique is that each was solicited by a Program Committee topic area co-chair. This is an idea I borrowed from Jeff Walker, who did something akin to this for the 2007 conference in Seattle. I hope you are able to attend some of these sessions.

We have several featured speakers as well. These include Dallas District Attorney Craig Watkins, who established a “Conviction Integrity Unit” tasked with reviewing claims of wrongful convictions. Also speaking is noted capital appeals attorney David Dow, who has represented a number of Texas death row inmates in Texas and who has written several books on the issue. Another speaker is Rachel Toor, who writes a regular column on writing and publishing for the Chronicle of Higher Education (as well as a column on long distance running for Running Times). Please make an effort to attend what will I am sure be illuminating and entertaining presentations.

The 2013 Annual Meeting is the first ACJS meeting without a printed program, which means you are reading this on some sort of electronic device. We are “going green” and providing the program electronically. It was made available on the ACJS website, as one document and as multiple, smaller documents with each day serving as a stand-alone document. This should make it easier for people to download the program to their computers, netbooks, and smartphone. I realize that going paperless for the conference program is a significant change, but I believe it is the right thing to do, and hope you will bear with me as we work through the kinks that invariably accompany a major change in procedure.

I hope that you will all be able to find some time to leave the hotel and see what Dallas has to offer. This year also marks the 50th Anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, and that tragic event is memorialized in the 6th Floor Museum in Dealey Plaza, which is an easy walk. There are also a number of restaurants and watering holes in the vicinity of the hotel, and the West End, which has a number of eateries and nightspots, is nearby.
I am indebted to my Program Chair, Lorenzo Boyd, and all the members of the Program Committee, for their hard and diligent work on the program. As a former Program Chair myself, I know all too well just how much work is involved in the position, and I know that all the credit for the conference goes to Lorenzo. He has been a great colleague and an even better friend. Please thank him and the Program Committee members when you see them!

It has truly been my honor and privilege to serve as your President this year. My term ends on Friday, when Jim Frank of Cincinnati becomes President. Hopefully I will not have left too many messes for him to clean up. Actually, I know the Academy is and will remain in good hands. Every member of the Executive Board that I have worked with, current and former, has done great work and always operated with the best interests of the Academy in mind. Cathy Barth, our long-time Association Manager, and Mary Stohr, our new Executive Director (and former Treasurer and Trustee), provide outstanding assistance to the Board. It has truly been a privilege to serve with all of these good people on the Executive Board and to have the opportunity to give something back to ACJS, an organization that has meant so much to me, both professionally and personally. As a great man once sang, I’ll see you further on up the road.

Craig Hemmens
Dear Annual Meeting Attendees and ACJS Members,

It is a great pleasure to serve as your Executive Director of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. Before I launch into a brief recounting of how and why I was hired, I wanted to wish you the very best of conferences! The Annual Meeting has always been at the very heart of what we do as an organization and, as you peruse this program book and read the greeting by President Craig Hemmens, you might just be dazzled by all there is to see and do at this 50th Anniversary Annual Meeting of ACJS. Besides the “work” of the conference – the panels, presentations, workshops, and roundtables – please also be sure to stop in at the section meetings and the regional meetings and their respective events.

If you are new to ACJS, the very best way to meet and get to know people is to participate in sections with people who have similar research and pedagogical interests, or practitioner experience, as you! Working for the regional organizations will also lead to friendships which can be renewed not just at ACJS, but at a regional meeting. Students should not hesitate to join the sections and regions, as well, as these connections are vital to your growth in our profession.

We have some special treats planned for you at this conference: The ACJS History Book, written by our own ACJS Historian Will Oliver, is available free to all registrants of the Annual Meeting; the Presidents Reception is free and open to all (come meet Presidents from years past roaming the reception hall); and speakers who will address the theme of politics and crime. Of course, this year, in Dallas, also marks the 50th anniversary of one of the most horrendous political crimes our country has experienced, the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Texas. If you get the chance, be sure to visit the exhibit on the assassination and tour the 6th Floor Museum in Dealey Plaza.

As for how I came to be your Executive Director: I was selected for this position last June by a committee composed of Dr. James Frank (1st Vice-President of ACJS), Dr. Melissa Barlow (Immediate Past President of ACJS) and Dr. David Owens (ACJS Treasurer). The Executive Director of ACJS is a half-time staff position (I am still a full-time Professor at Missouri State University) which assists the Board in their plans for the Academy, serves as the Association Manager supervisor, works with the Treasurer on finances (and is supervised by the Treasurer), and takes the initiative on some organizational matters (e.g. contracts). I am only the second Executive Director the Academy has ever had. The first was Dr. Mittie Southerland, who ably served for six years in the position and who continues to serve as a role model for me of what a director should do and be. As you would expect should you know Mittie, she has generously shared her time and expertise about this job over the last several months. Also of assistance and supportive of my efforts these first months have been all of the members of the ACJS Executive Board, but particularly President Craig Hemmens, the Vice-Presidents Jim Frank and Brian Payne (2nd V-P), and Treasurer Dave Owens. Cathy Barth, ACJS Association Manager, and guru about all ACJS organizational matters, has also been an invaluable font of information and support. Though I was on the Board myself for nine years, six of them as Treasurer and thus the supervisor of the National Office for three years and the supervisor of the Executive Director once we hired Mittie, there was still a learning curve and managing the Academy is a team effort, which is why the assistance of these folks was so important and will continue to be so in the years to come!

Let me close by welcoming you to the 50th Anniversary Annual Meeting of ACJS! If I can be of assistance to you in any way regarding the conference or ACJS, please do not hesitate to contact me at mstohr@missouristate.edu or execdir@acjs.org, or just stop me in the hallway as those ex-Presidents will not be the only ones roaming!

Sincerely,
Mary K. Stohr,
Executive Director of ACJS

The ACJS Employment Exchange (EE), located in the Lone Star A1 meeting room, 2nd floor of the hotel, will open on Wednesday, March 20, at 12:00 pm and close at 5:00 pm. On Thursday, March 21, and Friday, March 22, the EE will open from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. The EE will not be open on Saturday.

THE ACJS EE HAS GONE GREEN! No longer is it necessary to send hard copies of position announcements or candidate listings. The ACJS Executive Board has approved the installation of computers to accommodate the EE attendees. Hiring institutions need to send their 1) announcement and 2) brief description of the position (see below for details), and job candidates need to send their vitae to our email address, JZL161@psu.edu. For easy indexing in our email system, hiring institutions should use “ACJSJOBOPENINGS” as their email title, and job candidates should use “ACJSJOB CandidaTES” as their email title. Job candidates are also advised to note their specialty areas in the email submission.

There is no cutoff date; the EE will maintain a rolling enrollment. For best results, institutions or persons wishing to post to the EE are advised to email the announcement or listing a week before the Annual Meeting. Submissions will continue to be accepted by email or they can be brought to the EE on a flash drive. Attendees will be able to copy announcements and candidate listings to their respective flash drives.

The EE will operate three computers for position searches. There will be a folder on the main screen, and the list of institutions will be in a document file format. Job candidates can open the files to confirm the position announcements. Internet access or printer will NOT be available on these laptops. Job candidates may browse the announcements and save files to their own flash memory.

The EE will operate two computers for candidate searches. There will be a folder on the main screen containing individual candidate profiles (e.g., vita). The files will be indexed by name and specialties listed by the candidate(s). Hiring institution representatives can browse the profiles and save the files in their own flash memory. The Internet access or printer will NOT be available on these laptops.

At any given time during the EE program, at least two EE representatives will be on-site. The EE representatives will be graduate students from across the country that have volunteered their service to ACJS. The EMPLOYMENT EXCHANGE ribbons below their nametags will easily identify them.

Along with the position announcements, hiring institutions are advised to submit brief summary memo, called “position-at-a-glance,” containing 1) school name 2) # of positions, 3) position titles (e.g., policing, theory, corrections, generalist), 4) eligibility (e.g., immigration status, minimum academic degree), and 5) contact information of the institution representative during the ACJS Annual Meeting. The EE will organize the memos and beam them on a wall screen using a projector. Please make the position-at-a-glance as concise as possible. Job candidates will be encouraged to glance at it for quick reference, then go to the position announcement, and see if they would like to contact the representative(s) attending conference.

Hiring institution representatives should bring their own table banner. The banners should be in an acceptable fashion. We have noted in the previous EE programs that some schools have deteriorating table banners with 1) poor graphic design, 2) overwhelming colors with unidentifiable school names, or 3) nothing but acronyms of the institution. Please be conscientious and check with other faculty members before bringing it to the ACJS EE.

Tables and chairs that institutions and candidates can use for employment-related discussions will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Institutions also are advised to determine in advance their interview/discussion schedule (i.e., who will be available on what days at what Interview/discussion sign-up sheets will be made available for posting, and this operation works on a self-service basis. To facilitate communication between prospective employers and job candidates, materials for self-service messages are made available. Candidates and institutions should check the board regularly. Also, since there is no way to insure that messages will be received or delivered, institutions should consider providing representative’s contact information (e.g., name and hotel) to EE staff.

On Thursday, March 15, at 9:30 am, Jim Ruiz, Associate Professor of Criminal Justice-Penn State Harrisburg, will make a presentation entitled “Tips for a Successful Job Interview.” This presentation contains valuable information for all those who are or will be soon entering the job market.

DAVID MUELLER

The Department of Criminal Justice is deeply saddened by the sudden passing of Dr. David Mueller on August 20th. We, his colleagues and students in the department and friends across the campus of Boise State University, mourn the loss of an excellent colleague and professor and an amazing friend.

Dr. Mueller began his academic studies at San Jose State University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice Administration in August of 1991. He then pursued further educational aspirations at Washington State University, earning a Master of Arts in Criminal Justice in 1994 and a Ph.D. in Political Science with specialization in criminal justice, public administration, and applied policy studies in 2001. Under the direction of Dr. David C. Nice, his dissertation was entitled “Kids, Cops, and the Politics of School-Based Crime Prevention: An Assessment of the Spokane Police Department’s Community Safety Education Program.” During his time at Washington State University, he served as graduate instructor and teaching assistant for the Program in Criminal Justice and as a Teaching and Research Associate for the Washington State Institute for Community Oriented Policing at Washington State University- Spokane.

In 1997, Dr. Mueller started his academic career as an Assistant Professor for the Department of Criminal Justice at California State University, Los Angeles, teaching courses in police organization and administration, juvenile justice, and crime control policy. In 1998, Dr. Mueller took a position as Visiting Assistant Professor in the Department of Sociology at the University of Idaho where he taught courses in juvenile justice and delinquency, police and society, introduction to the justice system, and issues in contemporary policing. From 1999 to 2001, Dr. Mueller served as a Juvenile Counselor with the Northwest Children’s Home in their juvenile sex offender treatment program in Lewiston, ID. Dr. Mueller arrived at Boise State University in 2001 as an Assistant Professor. He later earned tenure and was promoted to Associate Professor in 2005. He served as the Department Graduate Coordinator from 2006 to 2009. Dr. Mueller taught courses at the undergraduate and graduate level in the following areas: graduate seminar in juvenile justice, juvenile justice, introduction to criminal justice, schools and delinquency (undergraduate and graduate) and senior seminar.
Dr. Mueller was an expert on juvenile justice and school violence. His recent thirst for knowledge was in school violence as evidenced by his recent publication history and in his direction of graduate student theses and projects. He was an accomplished scholar who was published in several reputable peer reviewed journals, such as Crime and Delinquency, Youth Violence and Juvenile Justice, and Journal of Criminal Justice Education Dr. Mueller authored and co-authored numerous books and book chapters on juvenile justice and delinquency and law enforcement. Dr. Mueller conducted research in the community, authoring and co-authoring technical reports in the area of juvenile justice and delinquency and substance abuse treatment program evaluation. He was an excellent collaborator with other faculty and students within the department and scholars outside of the department.

Dr. Mueller was a substantial contributor to the discipline of criminal justice. He was currently serving as the Region V Trustee to the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS). He participated in a myriad of committees for the ACJS, including chair of the Juvenile Justice Section Awards committee, member of the Bruce Smith Awards committee and reviewer of multiple student paper competitions. At the regional level, Dr. Mueller was instrumental in the success of the Western Association of Criminal Justice (formerly known as Western and Pacific Association of Criminal Justice Educators), serving in all leadership capacities, including President in 2006-2007. For the university, Dr. Mueller’s service spanned all levels: University curriculum committee, College curriculum committee, multiple search, promotion and tenure, and graduate student thesis or project committees.

Dr. David Mueller was known as a passionate teacher and a good-natured professional. He worked tirelessly to assist the department and the Academy in multiple ways without hesitation. Faculty, staff, and graduate students looked forward to his annual Halloween party. Many times, he was in attendance at department functions including Dr. Bostaph’s football parties often competing with Dr. Giacomazzi for top guacamole billing. He was always kind and caring to his colleagues and their families, often making them feel welcome in the department and at social functions. Beyond his scholarly achievements, Dave could always be counted on to add a splash of fun to department meetings, functions, and conferences. He will always be remembered for his smile, contagious laughter, and willingness to poke fun at himself. We will surely miss him.

Dave is survived by his sons, Kyle and Ryan, his sister, Bridgette Curry, and his brother, Hal Mueller. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Our deepest sympathies go out to his sons, Ryan and Kyle, and the rest of his family.
Dr. Roslyn (Roz) Muraskin, ACJS Secretary, and Professor of Criminal Justice at Long Island University, passed away on April 21, 2012 after a two-year battle with ovarian cancer. A cherished colleague, Roz was an accomplished criminal justice scholar and a leading advocate for women’s rights in the workplace. Her scholarly research focused on women’s leadership development; gender, race and the criminal justice system; and female inmates. She authored or co-authored more than fifteen scholarly works, including five books: It’s a Crime: Women and Justice, Crime and the Media: Headlines vs. Reality, Key Correctional Issues, Visions for Change: Crime and Justice in the Twenty-First Century, and Morality and the Law. She was editor of the “Women’s Series” for Prentice-Hall and of the refereed journal Criminal Justice Studies.

While Roz was a prolific and well-respected scholar, her record of service to the discipline and to the community was even more impressive. She served as the Secretary to the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, President of the Northeastern Criminal Justice Sciences Association, and as Vice-Chair of the Women’s Division for the American Society of Criminology.

A prominent advocate for women’s rights and a breast cancer survivor, Roz founded the Long Island Women’s Institute in 1991 to encourage women to become successful leaders and to break the proverbial “glass ceiling.” Over the course of two decades she hosted workshops, lectures, forums and networking opportunities dedicated to the discussion and debate of women’s issues, including pay equity, health and wellness, training and development and financial investment strategies. She also partnered with the Moxxie Network to provide junior and senior college-age women with the opportunity to be mentored by professional women in business.

Her honors included the Woman of the Year Award for Excellence from the Minorities Section of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences; the Fellow Award (twice) from the Northeastern Association of Criminal Justice Sciences; and recognition for her work in AIDS education from the Long Island Association for AIDS Care. Roz earned a B.A. in political science from Queens College, an M.A. in government from New York University and a Ph.D. in criminal justice from The Graduate Center, City University of New York. She served on the LIU Post faculty for more than 30 years and as a former associate dean in the LIU Post College of Management.

Roz was devoted to her family and enjoyed spending time with her six grandchildren. She is survived by husband, Matthew Muraskin, an attorney; sons Seth and Craig; a daughter, Tracy Birkhahn; and six grand-children, Lindsay, Nickia, Benjamin, Zachary, Sloane and Sydney. She is also survived by her mother, Alice Cashman, and brother, Richard Cashman. The family requests that persons interested in memorializing Roz do so via a donation to ovarian cancer research.

She is associate professor in the graduate writing program at Eastern Washington University in Spokane.
Craig Watkins

On January 1, 2007, Craig Watkins was inaugurated as the first African American elected to the office of Criminal District Attorney in Texas. Mr. Watkins pledged to be “smart on crime,” an innovative philosophy embodied in the prosecutor’s primary responsibility, which is to seek justice. Now in his second term, Mr. Watkins continues to vigorously prosecute the county’s most violent offenders while simultaneously engaging strategies which seek to address the primary causes for the commission of low level crimes.

Mr. Watkins has created and/or expanded a number of programs and initiatives unique to Dallas County, in an effort to maximize the use of the taxpayers’ dollars. Among his initiatives are: the Conviction Integrity Unit, the Sexual Assault Unit, the Cold Case Unit, the Memo Agreement Program, the Gang Unit, the Impact Offender Program, the Animal Cruelty Unit, and the Community Prosecution Unit.

Mr. Watkins is a native of Dallas who was educated in local public schools. After earning a Bachelor’s degree in political science from Prairie View A&M University, Mr. Watkins received his Juris Doctorate from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law. He is active in a number of professional, public service, and civic organizations. He and his wife, Tanya, are the proud parents of three children.

- Recipient of the Texas Democratic Women’s Oscar Mauzy Humanitarian Award (February 25, 2012.)

- Recipient of the American Bar Association Criminal Justice Section’s Norm Maleng Minister of Justice Award (October 28, 2011.)
• District Attorney Watkins and the Conviction Integrity Unit at the Dallas County DA’s Office are the focus of the six-part documentary series, “Dallas DNA,” on the Investigation Discovery channel.

• A resolution was presented (May 29, 2009) on the Senate floor by Texas Senators Royce West and Rodney Ellis to District Attorney Watkins and the Conviction Integrity Unit for their extraordinary work reviewing post-conviction claims of innocence.

• District Attorney Watkins was featured on the cover of the November 2008 issue of GOVERNING magazine as one of the “Public Officials of the Year.”

• District Attorney Watkins was selected in December 2008 by The Dallas Morning News as the “2008 Texan of the Year.”

• District Attorney Watkins was a “Promenade of Distinction” honoree at the 17th Annual Trumpet Awards in Atlanta, Georgia (January 2009.)

• District Attorney Watkins was featured in a profile story on the front page of the Wall Street Journal (November 15-16, 2008.)

• District Attorney Watkins’ innovative strategies as the new DA in Dallas County have garnered him local, national, and international attention from numerous media outlets, including the Associated Press, German TV, New York Times, CNN, “60 Minutes,” “The View,” “Larry King Live,” ABC’s “Good Morning America,” True TV, Newsweek, The Dallas Morning News, Washington Post, LA Times, Chicago Tribune, NPR, EBONY, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, D Magazine, Texas Monthly, and Texas Lawyer.
Panels
A Panel consists of four or five presenters of written papers and a panel chair. Presenters make formal presentations of completed works. The Panel chair opens and closes the session and coordinates questions and comments from the audience.

Feature Panels are panels that are likely to be of special interest to a wide audience or may feature one or more special guests.

Author Meets Critics
Author Meets Critics is a moderated discussion between the author(s) of a recent scholarly published work and three or four critics of the work’s methodology and findings.

Roundtables
A Roundtable is an open discussion of a topic, organized by a moderator and involving several individual discussants with special knowledge or expertise in the topic area. Discussants can be academics, practitioners, or students. No formal papers are presented. Often the discussion concerns diverse viewpoints or findings in a topic area.

Feature Roundtables are roundtables of special interest to a wide audience or may feature one or more special guests.

Open Seminar
An Open Seminar involves one or more presenters on more practical educational opportunities on such topics as looking for funding, grant writing, finding a job, developing course syllabi, or becoming a new department chair. Open seminars can also be hands-on experiences that involve the audience as participants, such as mock job interviews or victim offender mediations. An Open Seminar is in a different format than a roundtable or panel, because there are no discussants and no scholarly papers presented. All Open Seminars are open to all conference participants with no advance registration required.

Research and Pictorial Showcase
The Research and Pictorial Showcase is a collection of visual displays of research that encourages informal interaction between authors and audience. This event occurs Friday, 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

The Department of Justice Administration offers a Master of Science Degree and Doctor of Philosophy Degree in the Administration of Justice. Our degrees were developed to support the professional interests of those who are currently criminal justice professionals, those aspiring to be criminal justice practitioners as well as individuals seeking academic and research appointments. Our programs emphasize theoretical as well as applied knowledge. The Master of Science Degree is offered 100% online in an executive format making it possible to complete the degree in three continuous semesters as well as on-campus in the traditional semester format.

Our faculty are active scholars, engaging in research that seeks to encourage and support best practices in criminal justice strategies, programs and organizations. The faculty’s orientation toward applied research results in strong partnerships with local, state, national and international criminal justice organizations and provides our students with significant research opportunities.

Louisville is a vibrant and diverse metropolitan area of nearly 1 million. The University of Louisville is one of a selective group of public universities nationwide to be designated an institution of “very high research activity” by the Carnegie Foundation.

ACATs are nationally standardized instruments that recognize and reinforce the uniqueness of individual academic departments, balancing the need for external accountability with internal autonomy. Departments select content components to match their teaching and learning goals rather than using a monolithic test with one-size-fits-all content.

Available for Associates and Baccalaureate programs, the ACAT in Criminal Justice has been administered more than 30,000 times since its inception. The current reference groups represent 73 campuses.

ACATs are administered as a proctored pencil-and-paper test (ACAT), a proctored online test (ACAT Online), or an un-proctored online test (ACAT-N).

Choose combinations (4, 6, or 9) of the following areas for your customized instrument.

- Administration
- Correction Processes
- Criminal Law
- Criminology
- Criminal Justice Systems
- Criminal Justice Theory
- Homeland Security

TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY-SAN MARCOS NOW OFFERS A PH.D. DEGREE IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Why a Ph.D. from Texas State University’s Department of Criminal Justice?

- The department has 24 full-time faculty members with backgrounds in criminology/criminal justice, law, sociology, and psychology.
- The Center for Geospatial Intelligence and Investigation is headed by Dr. Kim Rossmo who is the world’s leading expert on geographic profiling.
- Doctoral students include both traditional, full-time students and part-time, working professionals.
- Doctoral teaching and research assistantships are available for full-time students and pay about $27,000 for the academic year.

New Faculty in 2010-2011: Dr Marcus Felson, Dr Mitch Chamlin, and Dr Beth Sanders

The Department of Criminal Justice at Texas State University-San Marcos offers a doctoral program for (1) criminal justice professionals who seek advanced education and (2) students who will pursue academic appointments at colleges and universities in Texas and around the nation. Texas State University-San Marcos is located in the heart of the central Texas corridor, near sixteen state criminal justice offices and thirteen Texas counties, including Travis (Austin) and Bexar (San Antonio). The university’s geographic proximity to state criminal justice agency headquarters for law enforcement, criminal courts, and corrections, and to managers and executives in these agencies, makes it an ideal location for offering a doctoral-degree program.

The doctoral program is part of a vibrant department, with approximately 1,000 bachelor’s students, 150 master’s students, and 40 doctoral students. Faculty members are involved in a wide range of applied and basic research. A list of faculty and their research interests is available at www.cj.txstate.edu/people/faculty.

The National Archive of Criminal Justice Data (NACJD) facilitates research in criminal justice and criminology, through

- the preservation, enhancement, and sharing of computerized data resources,
- the production of original research based on archived data, and
- specialized training workshops in quantitative analysis of crime and justice data.

NACJD is primarily sponsored by agencies within the U.S. Department of Justice. Our federal sponsors provide data collections to the archive, fund secondary analysis of criminal justice data, and sponsor educational workshops focused on analysis of specific data collections in the archive.

- The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) collects, analyzes, publishes and disseminates information on crime, criminal offenders, victims of crime, and the operation of the justice systems at all levels of government.

- The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) is the research, development and evaluation agency dedicated to improving knowledge and understanding of crime and justice issues through science.

- The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) strives to strengthen the juvenile justice system’s efforts to protect public safety, hold offenders accountable, and provide services that address the needs of youth and their families.

NACJD was established in 1978 under the auspices of the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR), which is part of the Institute of Social Research at the University of Michigan. ICPSR provides access to the world’s largest archive of digital social science data and offers training facilities in basic and advanced techniques of quantitative social analysis.

Internationally respected criminologist, Dr. Francis T. Cullen, ’72, has established the first ever scholarship fund to benefit criminal justice students at his alma mater, Bridgewater State University.

Dr. Cullen’s commitment to the field of criminal justice and his intellectual, energetic and academically rigorous attitude is an inspiration for today’s criminal justice students ... and they need your help.

To find out how you can support the Cullen Criminal Justice Scholarship at Bridgewater State University, please visit www.bridgew.edu/give.

Bridgewater State University is a registered 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Your gift is tax-deductible as allowed by law.

“Our criminal justice graduate students have enormous potential and, often, the catalyst needed to ignite that potential lies in the student being given an opportunity to grow. I support Dr. Cullen’s Scholarship because it offers worthy recipients not only the transformative opportunity to conduct research in their areas of interest, but also the priceless experience of working with Dr. Cullen as mentor. Dr. Cullen is a pre-eminent criminologist, and we are proud he is a Bridgewater graduate.”

We at NEACJS are dedicated to the advancement of Criminal Justice as a science, a profession and as an international discipline. We believe that we have a responsibility and a voice in establishing and executing the policies associated with our discipline. Criminal justice is dynamic and requires involvement by those of us who hold positions within our respective organizations that allow us to drive policy decisions in a positive direction. NEACJS is fortunate to have many dedicated and hard-working members who are in large part responsible for many of the advances that have taken place and will continue to take place in the world of criminal justice.

If you are not a member of this vibrant organization and you are from our area, please consider joining NEACJS. Please visit us at the NEACJS Table located in the vendor’s exhibition space during this conference.

ACJS
INFORMATION
The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences is an international organization established in 1963 to foster professional and scholarly activities in the field of criminal justice. ACJS promotes scholarly research and professional activities within the discipline of criminal justice for both educators and practitioners. The Academy also provides a forum for disseminating ideas related to issues in research, policy, education, and practice within the field. Additionally, the Academy offers sections that address special interests of the members.

The Academy attributes its success in creating this dynamic professional association to the composition of its membership. ACJS is comprised of members from a variety of backgrounds including:

- Scholars who are international in scope and multidisciplinary in orientation,
- Professionals from all sectors of the criminal justice system, and
- Students seeking to explore the criminal justice field as future scholars or practitioners.

Through the vital interchange of ideas among these groups, ACJS members develop and share knowledge about critical issues regarding crime, criminal and social justice.

Membership Advantages

- Online subscription to Justice Quarterly, a journal published six times per year, devoted to the development of knowledge in the broad area of criminal justice. While the field of criminal justice is the primary focus of Justice Quarterly, scholarship and research in related areas are solicited. The journal provides a multidisciplinary forum for scholars using diverse methodologies to disseminate knowledge and innovations about justice issues and processes.
- Online subscription to the Journal of Criminal Justice Education, a quarterly journal devoted to criminal justice education and teaching.
- Online subscriptions to Justice Quarterly and the Journal of Criminal Justice Education provide access to current and all back issues of these journals.
- Subscription to the ACJS Employment Bulletin, updated and posted twice a week on our web site at www.acjs.org. It offers a listing of professional employment opportunities in the field.
- Subscription to ACJS Today, the official newsletter of the Academy, published online five times per year. The newsletter provides information about a variety of criminal justice-related issues.
- Professional growth, collegial contact, and networking opportunities through participation in the Academy’s Annual Meetings.
- An employment exchange at the Annual Meeting affords professionals the opportunity to share information and conduct employment interviews.
- Book exhibits at the Annual Meeting provide access to new criminal justice publications and publishing companies’ representatives.
- A membership directory facilitates contacts among researchers, educators and practitioners.
- Discounts on advertising in the Employment Bulletin (applies to Institutional members only).
- Opportunity to participate in the leadership of the Academy through elected office and service on committees.
- Opportunity to participate in the Sections of the Academy.
- Opportunity to vote in all ACJS general elections (does not apply to Student members).

Sections

- Community College: The Community College Section seeks to further the interests of community colleges, junior colleges, vocational/technical schools, two-year programs, and law enforcement and correctional academies.
- Corrections: The Corrections Section encourages research and theory development relating to community and institutional corrections, as well as the development of relationships between practitioners, scholars, and researchers.
- Critical Criminal Justice: The Critical Criminal Justice Section promotes empirical and theoretical work on the ways in which ethnic/racial, class, and gender inequality contribute to crime and social control.
- International: The International Section promotes international information exchange, criminal justice research, curriculum development, international networking, and an annual reception. Members receive a subscription to the quarterly journal, International Criminal Justice Review.
- Juvenile Justice: The Juvenile Justice Section promotes communication between academics and practitioners, as well as research and theory in the area.
- Law and Public Policy: The Law and Public Policy Section seeks to raise awareness of law and public policy concerns relevant to criminal justice issues.
- Minorities and Women: The Minorities and Women Section focuses on issues within criminal justice that are pertinent to underrepresented minorities and women.
- Police: The Police Section strives to build networks among police practitioners, researchers, and educators.
- Restorative and Community Justice: The mission of the organization is to: provide a professional arena for academics, educators, justice agency practitioners, and victim advocates interested in developing restorative and community justice theory; conduct policy-relevant research on restorative and community justice practices; and educate individuals, organizations, institutions, and governmental entities about restorative and community justice principles and practices.
- Security and Crime Prevention: The Security and Crime Prevention Section’s primary mission is to promote the professional growth and development of its members through service and education to the academic and practical field of security.
- Victimology: The Victimology Section facilitates and encourages research and theory development related to victimology; encourages appropriate and effective teaching techniques and practices for victimology-related courses; and serves as a research network for and encourages interaction among academic, research, practitioner, and policymaking sectors in order to further knowledge of victimology.

The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences is an international organization established in 1963 to foster professional and scholarly activities in the field of criminal justice. ACJS promotes scholarly research and professional activities within the discipline of criminal justice for both educators and practitioners. The Academy also provides a forum for disseminating ideas related to issues in research, policy, education, and practice within the field. Additionally, the Academy offers sections that address special interests of the members.

The Academy attributes its success in creating this dynamic professional association to the composition of its membership. ACJS is comprised of members from a variety of backgrounds including:

- Scholars who are international in scope and multidisciplinary in orientation,
- Professionals from all sectors of the criminal justice system, and
- Students seeking to explore the criminal justice field as future scholars or practitioners.

Through the vital interchange of ideas among these groups, ACJS members develop and share knowledge about critical issues regarding crime, criminal and social justice. For more information, please visit our website at www.acjs.org.

Membership Advantages

Included in the One-Year Free Membership

- Online subscription to Justice Quarterly, a journal published six times per year, devoted to the development of knowledge in the broad area of criminal justice. While the field of criminal justice is the primary focus of Justice Quarterly, scholarship and research in related areas are solicited. The journal provides a multidisciplinary forum for scholars using diverse methodologies to disseminate knowledge and innovations about justice issues and processes.
- Online subscription to the Journal of Criminal Justice Education, a quarterly journal devoted to criminal justice education and teaching.
- Online subscriptions to Justice Quarterly and the Journal of Criminal Justice Education provide access to current and all back issues of these journals.
- Subscription to the ACJS Employment Bulletin, updated and posted twice a week on our web site at www.acjs.org. It offers a listing of professional employment opportunities in the field.
- Subscription to ACJS Today, the official newsletter of the Academy, published online five times per year. The newsletter provides information about a variety of criminal justice-related issues.
- Professional growth, collegial contact, and networking opportunities through participation in the Academy’s Annual Meetings.
- An employment exchange at the Annual Meeting affords professionals the opportunity to share information and conduct employment interviews.
- Book exhibits at the Annual Meeting provide access to new criminal justice publications and publishing companies’ representatives.
- A membership directory facilitates contacts among researchers, educators and practitioners.
- Opportunity to participate in the leadership of the Academy through elected office and service on committees.
- Opportunity to participate in the Sections of the Academy.

Sections

(Optional; Membership Requires Section Dues Payment)

- Community College: The Community College Section seeks to further the interests of community colleges, junior colleges, vocational/technical schools, two-year programs, and law enforcement and correctional communities.
- Corrections: The Corrections Section encourages research and theory development relating to community and institutional corrections, as well as the development of relationships between practitioners, scholars, and researchers.
- Critical Criminal Justice: The Critical Criminal Justice Section promotes empirical and theoretical work on the ways in which ethnic/racial, class, and gender inequality contribute to crime and social control.
- International: The International Section promotes international information exchange, criminal justice research, curriculum development, international networking, and an annual reception. Members receive a subscription to the quarterly journal, International Criminal Justice Review.
- Juvenile Justice: The Juvenile Justice Section promotes communication between academics and practitioners, as well as research and theory in the area.
- Law and Public Policy: The Law and Public Policy Section seeks to raise awareness of law and public policy concerns relevant to criminal justice issues.
- Minorities and Women: The Minorities and Women Section focuses on issues within criminal justice that are pertinent to underrepresented minorities and women.
- Police: The Police Section strives to build networks among police practitioners, researchers, and educators.
- Restorative and Community Justice: The mission of the organization is to: provide a professional arena for academics, educators, justice agency practitioners, and victim advocates interested in developing restorative and community justice theory; conduct policy-relevant research on restorative and community justice practices; and educate individuals, organizations, institutions, and governmental entities about restorative and community justice principles and practices.
- Security and Crime Prevention: The Security and Crime Prevention Section’s primary mission is to promote the professional growth and development of its members through service and education to the academic and practical field of security.
- Victimology: The Victimology Section facilitates and encourages research and theory development related to victimology; encourages appropriate and effective teaching techniques and practices for victimology-related courses; and serves as a research network for and encourages interaction among academic, research, practitioner, and policymaking sectors in order to further knowledge of victimology.

By joining the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, members agree to comply with the Academy’s Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics is available for review at www.acjs.org.

Certification for Academic Programs

The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Certification Standards for Academic Programs were approved May 2, 2005 and amended October 28, 2005 by the ACJS Executive Board. The goal of ACJS in adopting these Standards and implementing a Certification Review process is to measurably improve the quality of criminal justice education. For several years, ACJS had Minimum Standards for Criminal Justice Education and these standards were used in a peer review process through ACJS Academic Review. The new standards and process represent an evolution from “peer review” to “certification”. The ACJS Certification is designed to evaluate evidence-based compliance with the Certification Standards.

What do we mean by compliance with standards? The ACJS Executive Board will Certify those programs that undergo ACJS Certification Review and that have demonstrated, through substantive, credible evidence, the program meets or exceeds all parts of every standard. The emphasis is on evidence, not intention. Programs are required to provide evidence of program quality & effectiveness based on program outcome assessment.

The Certification Standards are broken into nine sections, each of which has specific Standards and Recommended Indicators. The sections are:

- A: Program Mission & History
- B: Program Structure & Curriculum
- C: Faculty
- D: Admission & Articulation
- E: Resources
- F: Student Services
- G: Integrity
- H: Program Quality & Effectiveness
- I: Branch Campuses, Additional Locations, and Other Instructional Sites

The Certification Standards for Academic Programs and Process for Undergoing Review are available for Associate, Baccalaureate, and Master’s degree programs. You can access these Standards at the following web addresses:

- Associate Degree Process and Standards - http://www.acjs.org/pubs/167_667_12020.cfm

The Application for Program Certification and other documents can also be downloaded from the Certification page on the ACJS website: http://www.acjs.org/pubs/167_667_3517.cfm

NOTE: All papers presented at the 2014 ACJS Annual Meeting are to be original works never before published, printed, or accepted for presentation elsewhere.

All attendees at the ACJS Annual Meeting shall abide by the ACJS Code of Ethics. A copy of the Code of Ethics can be found on the ACJS website, www.acjs.org.

Program Guidelines

All program participants are required to pre-register for the conference and to provide their own transportation and meeting expenses. The form for downloading and submitting pre-registration is available at www.acjs.org on the Annual Meeting page of the website.

Abstracts should be submitted only once via the ACJS website. DO NOT SEND ABSTRACTS DIRECTLY TO THE TOPIC AREA CHAIRS. If you have questions about your submission, please send them to the Program Co-Chairs, Christine Famega and Nicole Leeper Fiquero at ACJS2014@ucmail.uc.edu

LCD projectors will be available in the meeting rooms. No laptops/computers or overhead projectors will be provided. Additional audio/video equipment is the responsibility of the presenter. Individuals wanting additional equipment must either bring their own equipment to the conference or make arrangements through the hotel for equipment rental.

ACJS Program Participation Options

Research Showcase
The Research Showcase is a collection of visual displays of research that encourages informal interaction between authors and audience. The primary author of a Research Showcase presentation must be in attendance and committed to standing near his or her presentation throughout the allotted Friday 11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. session.

Paper Presentations
Panels consist of four or five presenters of written papers and a panel chair. Presenters make formal presentations of complete works. The panel chair opens and closes the session and coordinates questions and comments from the audience. Participants who select this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference.

Roundtables
Roundtables are open discussions of a topic, organized by a moderator and involving several individual discussants with special knowledge or expertise in the topic area. No formal papers are presented. Often the discussion concerns diverse viewpoints or findings in a topic area.

Feature Panels
Each topic area has co-chairs. One of the co-chairs is responsible for soliciting papers for a complete panel and discussants for a roundtable presentation. These complete panels and roundtables will be featured in the conference program.

Complete Panels
A complete panel consists of coordinating the arrangement of four papers related to a common theme. The person facilitating the complete panel must include a panel chair, panel title, and four papers with all supporting information for the papers at the time of submission to the website. Participants involved in this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference.

Student Authored Paper Panels
Undergraduate and graduate student authors may submit their papers to a regular topical area of their choice where they will present with other faculty and practitioners. However, students have the option to submit their papers for presentation on an all-student panel. These panels are on a variety of topical areas, and are designed to facilitate initial presentations in a supportive and welcoming environment. Participants who select this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference. Students who select this option should send to a “student panel” and NOT to a topical area.

Submission Procedures

All submissions must be made via the ACJS webpage: http://www.acjs.org. The submission system for the 2014 Annual Meeting will be available no later than June 1, 2013. Do not send submissions directly to the individual committee members. Please note that the ACJS Annual Program book is created from the information you submit online. To reduce the number of errors in the program, please review and verify that all the information you enter into the submission form is complete and correct before you click the submit button. Please be sure that the first and last names are in the appropriate places.

Before beginning the submission process, please have all the following required information available. All submissions must include:

1. Submission Type (Click on the appropriate submission type): research showcase, paper presentation, roundtable, complete panel, or student panel. When submitting a complete panel, the chair information and information for up to four papers must be entered.
2. Title of paper, research showcase presentation, roundtable or complete panel.
3. An abstract of no more than 100 words must be submitted for each paper and roundtable. An abstract should be included for each paper on the complete panels. When submitting a complete panel, the chair’s form will include requested times and dates for the panel. This is a benefit of putting together a complete panel.
4. Contact information for each author, presenter, chair, etc. [Note: Paper submissions are limited to the presenter and five co-authors.]

Edward R. Maguire
ACJS Awards Committee Chair
American University
maguire@american.edu
The ACJS Nominations and Elections Committee is soliciting nominations for the following Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences offices: Second Vice President, Treasurer, Trustee-at-Large, Region Two Trustee, and Region Three Trustee. All candidates for office must be regular ACJS members in good standing. The individuals who are elected will take office at the Friday 2014 ACJS Executive Board Meeting.

The person elected to the office of Second Vice President will have a four-year term of office on the ACJS Executive Board and will hold the offices of Second Vice President, First Vice President, President, and Immediate Past President in turn. The person elected to the office of Treasurer will have a three-year term. The person elected to the office of Trustee-at-Large will have a three-year term. The person elected to a Regional Trustee position will have a three-year term. Only current ACJS Regular members holding professional employment affiliation in the Region (Two or Three) and having been a member of the respective regional association for at least one full year immediately prior to being nominated or petitioning may run for the respective Trustee position. Region Two includes the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia; and Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Region Three includes the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin; and the Canadian Provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Individuals seeking ACJS office may achieve candidacy by either petition or nomination. Individuals who use the petition process automatically secure candidacy, as long as the petitions are deemed to meet the minimum number of signatures required. Individuals who are nominated for office shall compete for placement on the slate via review by the Nominations and Elections Committee, which will make a recommendation to the ACJS Executive Board regarding the final slate of candidates.

Those nominating individuals for ACJS office are expected to contact the nominee to ensure that the nominee is willing to run for the office in question. An ACJS member seeking an office via petition must obtain seventy-five (75) signatures of Regular ACJS members in good standing. The petition must state the name and complete address of the candidate, e-mail address, home and office phone numbers, and the office the candidate is seeking. To facilitate verification, the petition must also include the clearly printed name, signature, and institutional affiliation or address of each ACJS member signing it and the signature date. More than one petition form may be submitted on behalf of a specific candidate.

Nomination Forms Must Be Postmarked By July 1, 2013. The Nomination Form can be accessed directly from the ACJS Home Page or at: http://www.acjs.org/pubs/uploads/callfornominationsFORM.doc.

Petition Forms Must Be Received No Later Than June 15, 2013. The Petition Form can be accessed directly from the ACJS Home Page or at: http://www.acjs.org/pubs/uploads/Petition.doc.

Mail all nominations and petitions to:
Craig Hemmens, Chair
ACJS Nominations and Elections Committee
Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences
7339 Hanover Parkway, Suite A
Greenbelt, MD 20770.

Address any questions to the Committee by contacting Dr. Hemmens at craighemmens@missouristate.edu (417) 836-6290.

As per ACJS Policy 303.01, the following rank-ordered criteria will be used by the Nominations and Elections Committee in making recommendations to the ACJS Executive Board regarding the final slate of candidates.

1. Dependability, demonstrated experience, record of accomplishments.
2. Demonstrable service to the Academy.
3. Demonstrable record of scholarship or contributions to the field of criminal justice.

ACJS Policy 104.01 states its goal of inclusivity. ACJS seeks to provide opportunities for all its members to participate in the business of the Academy, including policy and decision-making.

NOTE: The final slate of candidates approved by the ACJS Executive Board will be asked to complete a Candidate’s Information Form. This document will include length of ACJS membership, previous service for ACJS, previous service to other criminal justice organizations, major publications, and a candidate’s statement.
ACJS Seeking Committee Volunteers for 2014-2015

Brian Payne, ACJS 1st Vice President, is actively seeking Committee volunteers to serve during his presidency, March 2014 – March 2015. If you are interested in learning more about how to be actively involved in service to ACJS, contact Brian at bpayne@gsu.edu to volunteer. Every ACJS member who volunteers will be placed on a standing or ad hoc Committee, to the extent possible.

Committee membership is limited to ACJS members. The composition of all committees will be as diverse as possible with regards to gender, race, region, and length of Academy membership.

Every year, ACJS needs volunteers for the Academy’s Standing Committees. Committee volunteers usually serve for one year, beginning with the Friday of the Annual Meeting after the Executive Board meets. Appointments to the following ACJS Standing Committees are for one year, unless otherwise stated:

- Academic Review (members serve three-year terms and membership is restricted to trained certification reviewers)
- Affirmative Action
- Assessment (appointments for 2014-2015 will two persons for a one-year term; two persons for two-year terms; and two persons for three-year terms. For 2015-2016 forward, all appointments will be for three-year terms.)
- Awards
- Budget, Finance, and Audit (members are appointed by the 2nd Vice President)
- Committee on National Criminal Justice Month
- Constitution and By-Laws (members are appointed by the 2nd Vice President and serve three-year terms)
- Ethics (members serve three-year terms and are nominated by the Trustees-At-Large and appointed by the ACJS Executive Board)
- Membership
- Nominations and Elections (members are appointed by the Immediate Past President)
- Program
- Public Policy
- Publications
- Student Affairs

The success of ACJS depends on having a dedicated cadre of volunteers. Committee membership is an excellent way to make a difference in the future of ACJS.
