Programs that Lawyers Will Pay For,
Credits Be Damned!

By:

Juliet R. Aiken
Georgetown Law Center

Jan F. Majewski
Holland & Knight LLP

Presented at:
ACLEA 49th Mid-Year Meeting
February 2-5, 2013
Clearwater, FL
Juliet Aiken
Georgetown Law Center
Washington, DC

Juliet is the Deputy Director of the Center for the Study of the Legal Profession at Georgetown Law. She works with the Executive Director and the co-Directors of the Center to provide open-enrollment executive education programs on leadership, teamwork and client skills. In addition to supporting executive execution, Juliet conducts empirical research on issues relevant to the legal profession. She is currently involved in ongoing research on fast-tracking associates to partner, the career paths of alumni of Georgetown Law, and research on the General Counsel of the future. Her scholarship in general focuses on diversity, leadership and statistics/measurement. She holds a B.S. from the College of William and Mary, a Certificate in Statistics and Measurement, and a M.S. and PhD in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from the University of Maryland, College Park.

Jan F. Majewski
Holland & Knight LLP
Tampa, FL

Jan Majewski is a senior program manager with Holland & Knight, one of the world’s largest law firms. He has many years of experience in CLE with a variety of providers, including a law firm, a state bar association, an international specialty bar organization and a law school. In his role with the firm he administers the training of more than 1,100 attorneys in 17 US offices. He also serves as a civil traffic infraction hearing officer (traffic court judge) for night traffic court in Pinellas County, Florida. He is certified by the Florida Supreme Court as a mediator for county and circuit courts, and is a Florida Bar-certified diversity trainer.

He joined ACLEA in 1991 and served as President of ACLEA in 2002 – 2003. He has completed the Leadership Institute for Continuing Professional Education at Harvard, co-sponsored by Harvard and Penn State Universities. He received his J.D. from George Washington University Law School and his B.A. in journalism/communications from the University of Bridgeport. He is licensed to practice law in both Connecticut and Florida.
IF YOU WANT TO PLAY, YOU NEED TO SHOW UP!

Programs That Lawyers Will Pay For, Credits be Damned!
Sunday, February 3, 3:45 - 4:45 pm

Although listed in the program brochure as an "in house" program, this session is appropriate for any ACLEA member who would like to learn about some CLE program topics that will draw a crowd…even if the program does not qualify for CLE credit.

This session will be presented in an unorthodox manner----loosely-based on the TV game show "The Dating Game." Contestants (in groups of three) will personify the programs to their potential attorney "date" seeking a match.

A complete list of program topics covered in this session will be available at the conclusion of the session and at the ACLEA registration desk. You can also obtain the materials by contacting the presenters directly.

We encourage you to stop by this session for some fun and perhaps pick up a CLE programming tip or two.

Juliet Aiken  jra76@law.georgetown.edu
Jan Majewski  jan.majewski@hklaw.com