Peter S. Vogel is a trial partner at Gardere Wynne Sewell LLP where he is Chair of the eDiscovery Group and the Internet, eCommerce, & Technology Team. Before practicing law he worked as a programmer, received a Masters in Computer Science, and taught graduate courses in Information Technology. Peter has had trials around the US on failed software implementations, misappropriation of trade secrets, copyright infringement, software patent infringement, and Internet disputes. At the State Bar of Texas Peter served as Chair of the MCLE Committee, was the Founding Chair of the Computer & Technology Section, and served as a member of the Board of Directors. For 12 years he has served as the Founding Chair of the Texas Supreme Court Judicial Committee on Information Technology which is responsible for helping automate the Texas court system and putting Internet on the desktops of all 3,200 judges. Peter has been an Adjunct Professor at the SMU Dedman School of Law for more than 20 years and taught courses on Law of Office Management, Information Technology, eDiscovery, and Law of eCommerce. Each year Peter gives more than 30 speeches on Social Media and eDiscovery around the US. Many of Peter's topics are discussed on his blog www.vogelitlegalblog.com and in his monthly columns in eCommerce Times.
