Donita Bourns Douglas is Vice President of Professional Services for InReach, a leader in continuing education (CE) management solutions. In this role, she works with InReach clients to assist them in meeting or exceeding their CE program objectives.

Prior to working for InReach, Douglas served as Director of Educational Programs for the Oklahoma Bar Association. During her twelve-year tenure, she planned hundreds of CLE programs. In 2012, Douglas and OBA/CLE received the "InReach Partners in Excellence Award," recognizing exceptional work in the area of online legal education.

Previously, Douglas held the positions of instructor and interim director of Legal Research and Writing at the Oklahoma City University School of Law. She taught courses in research, writing, appellate brief writing, and appellate argument. Douglas also served as Regional Coordinator of the Jessup International Moot Court Competition, and was engaged in the private practice of law for over twenty years.
