ACLEA Standing Committees and Special Interest Groups (SIGs)

The following information applies to ACLEA standing committees and SIGs.

Standing Committees

1. Creation. The Executive Committee may authorize the creation of standing committees and SIGs.
   [Bylaws, Art. V, Sec. 1]

2. Appointments. The President appoints chairs of standing committees and SIGs from among the membership as suggested by the President-Elect, the Executive Director, or the current chairs.
   [Bylaws, Art. III, Sec. 3(a)]. With Executive Committee approval, the President may appoint persons who are not members of the Association to chair or be members of standing committees.
   [Bylaws, Art. V., Sec. 1]

3. Term. Members of standing committees and SIGs serve until the next regular election of officers.

4. Succession. Committees and SIGs follow a “ladder” system under which each co-chair serves for two years—the first year as junior co-chair, the second year as senior co-chair with a newly appointed co-chair.

5. Recruiting. Committee co-chairs are encouraged to recruit new members for their committees.

6. Meetings. Committee and SIG co-chairs are expected to convene a meeting of their members at the Mid-Year and Annual Meetings. Meeting rooms and time on the schedule are made available for this purpose.

7. Between Meeting Activities. Committees and SIGs are encouraged to connect between meetings. Between meetings, committee business is conducted by mail, e-mail, or telephone (or conference call) as necessary.
   [P&P, Art. V, Sec. A]

8. Reports. Committees and SIGs are expected to report on their activities and to submit a written report thereon before each [Mid-Year and] Annual Meeting.
   [P&P, Art. V, Sec. A]

Budget and Expenses – Standing Committees

1. Allocated Funds. The Executive Committee allocates funds for standing committees to conduct regular business by mail or by telephone, including long distance and/or conference call charges. No funding is provided for any travel, lodging, or meals for committee meetings, except with the prior approval of the Executive Committee.

2. Committee Budgets. The Executive Committee determines committee budgets at the beginning of the fiscal year. A specific amount may be allocated to cover anticipated committee expenses.
   [P&P, Art. V, Sec. A] Committee expenses may not exceed the allocated amount without prior approval of the Executive Committee. Unauthorized expenditures are not reimbursed and become the obligation of the individual incurring the costs.

3. Financial Reports. One of the co-chairs files with the Treasurer a final report on funds expended by the committee 30 days prior to the close of the fiscal year. ACLEA’s fiscal year runs from May 1–April 30.
   [P&P, Art. V, Sec. A]
