ACSP2022 ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DEADLINE IS TODAY

@@first_name@@ @@last_name@@,

Have you submitted your abstract for ACSP2022? Today is the deadline! Here are a couple of things you need to know before accessing the submission system:

Username and Password

You will need your ACSP username and password in order to access the abstract submission system. Your ACSP Username is: @@username@@.

If you need assistance with your password or have trouble accessing your account, please do not create a guest account. Contact membership@acsp.org.

Technical Support

For technical support using the submission site only, call 866-341-9590 between the hours of 8:00am and 5:00pm, CST or send an e-mail to ACSP@mirasmart.com.

Should you have another issue with your submission, please contact membership@acsp.org before the deadline (11:59 pm EST). As long as you email ACSP or MiraSmart for assistance before the deadline, please rest assured that will work with you to ensure your submission is successful.
Announcing the Urban Data Science Working Group

Urban communities in the 21st Century have increasingly transitioned into complex systems and systems-of-systems, consisting of many dynamically interdependent human, environmental and technical systems. To deal with these computing challenges and opportunities, Urban Data Science Working Group at ACSP focuses on the creation of sharable research and education models specifically for urban data science and applications. For more information visit the group's website at: https://urbands.github.io/UDS-WG/. If you are interested in participating, you may also go to https://groups.google.com/g/acsp-urbandatascience and click "Ask to join group."

Visit the ACSP website to learn more about this and other ACSP Working Groups.

Now Accepting Nominations for the ACSP2022 Awards

Now is the time to nominate your outstanding faculty and students for the ACSP2022 Awards! Nominations will be accepted through June 1. Winners will be honored as part of the ACSP Annual Conference.

JPER Now Offered Exclusively Online

ACSP is delighted to announce that starting with Volume 42, Number 2, our flagship Journal of Planning Education and Research will be online only for members. This move reflects the reality of how most of our members read the journal. It also has the benefit of being more ecologicallyfriendly. We hope you continue to use the journal in your scholarly work and that you consider publishing in the journal.

Fun Facts About Toronto - ACSP Conference Host City

A study by Ryerson University’s Centre for Urban Research and Land Development found that Toronto had the second highest population growth among central cities in all of the United States and Canada in 2020.
