NEWLY ESTABLISHED PRESIDENTIAL TASK FORCE

At the Spring Governing Board meeting, President Marlon G. Boarnet announced the establishment of the Presidential Task Force on Anti-Racism. Boarnet charged the task force to review all ACSP practices to identify barriers to maintaining a sustained anti-racist focus, with recommendations for institutional changes to overcome those barriers as well as the ways and means of moving forward. As the committee desires, this can include assessing the culture of the ACSP Annual Conference, media, advisement to member programs, and all association activities. This can also include advising the Governing Board on a method to track progress toward long-term goals and articulating and updating those goals.

The Task Force consists of the following nine members who reflect a broad diversity of racial identities, experiences, and expertise:

- Chair: Jeffrey Lowe, Texas Southern University
- Charisma Acey, University of California, Berkeley
- Fallon Aidoo, University of New Orleans
- Ryan Allen, University of Minnesota
- Annette Kim, University of Southern California
- Michael Lens, University of California Los Angeles
- Lisa Servon, University of Pennsylvania
- Sigmund Shipp, Hunter College
- Betsy Sweet, University of Massachusetts
