UPCOMING WEBINAR: THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC'S IMPACT ON PLANNING PROGRAMS

Many universities have started to reduce budgets or anticipate significant budget cuts in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Enrollments may drop, potentially exacerbating a situation that many planning programs have already been facing. Some universities may restructure or even eliminate programs. What changes should planning programs anticipate? What strategies can help us weather this difficult time? This webinar will focus on anticipating and responding to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on academic programs.

Speakers for this webinar include:

- Jennifer Cowley, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, University of North Texas
- Edward Feser, Provost, Oregon State University
- Sonia Hirt, Dean, College of Environment + Design, University of Georgia
Dawn Jourdan, Executive Associate Dean, College of Architecture, Texas A&M University
