ACSP SPECIAL ELECTION

The following candidates stand for election as ACSP Vice President/President Elect for the remainder of this current term, 2019-2021. The individual in this position advances automatically to the presidency of the ACSP for the term 2021-2023.

According to the ACSP Bylaws, “Each Full Member shall have one vote in the conduct of the affairs of the Association. In the case of election for officers and regional representatives, the administrative head of the Full Member institution/school/program shall cast the vote after polling and recording the individual votes of each capitated faculty member.”

Instructions for voting have been sent to each ACSP Full Member Program or Department Chair with a request to submit a unified vote on behalf of the program/department by September 4th.

On behalf of the Nominating and Elections Committee, and the ACSP, we thank all the candidates who are standing for election for their commitment, and we thank you, our Full Members for your support of ACSP!

Our Mission

The Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning promotes education, research, service and outreach in the United States and throughout the world by seeking to:

- recognize diverse needs and interests in planning;
- improve and enhance the accreditation process, and;
- strengthen the role of planning education in colleges and universities through publications conferences, and community engagement;
- extend planning beyond the classroom into the world of practice.
