Registration is now open for the 61st ACSP Annual Conference!

This year's conference will take place in two parts on October 7-8 and 21-23, and is fully virtual. We will kick off on October 7 with our Focus Event: Planning for Climate Justice to highlight emerging research and education on climate change and climate justice within urban planning. For the first time ever, on October 8, we will host ACSPConnect! This one day virtual event will give you a plethora of opportunities to network on a variety of platforms. Please invite your planning colleagues and students to participate in this exciting day! If you cannot be with us fully for the conference, please consider attending ACSPConnect!. This one day is free to all, although registration is required.

Once registered for the conference, you will have access to the online platform which enables you to view the complete conference schedule, create you own personalized agenda, message other attendees & more! We encourage all conference attendees to log on early and familiarize yourself with the virtual conference technology.

Additional conference highlights include:

- Elizabeth Yeampierre, UPROSE, Keynote Speaker
- Annual Awards Ceremony
- Sara Bronin, Cornell University, Keynote Speaker

Register today and we’ll see you soon!
