ACSP RELEASES 2022 CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Dear Member Faculty,

On behalf of the Executive Committee, we would like to draw your attention to this year’s Call for Volunteers and urge you to consider the positions available, some positions starting as early as Spring 2022, some in Fall 2022. You will see a wide range of volunteer opportunities available from conference track chairs to special and standing committees, award committees and opportunities to run for open positions on the Governing Board.

We look forward to receiving your submissions through this form by January 11, 2022. Submitting your name doesn't guarantee a placement as the ACSP Executive Committee strives to create committees with balanced representation.

In principle and in practice, the ACSP values and seeks diverse and inclusive participation within the field of planning. The ACSP promotes involvement and access to leadership opportunity to all members regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation, nationality, or disability. The ACSP will continue to provide leadership and commit time and resources to advance this objective. The ACSP will develop strategies and initiatives to promote and welcome diversity within the board and membership of the ACSP and provide tools for its member universities regarding diversity.

Most appointments will be announced in March 2022.

Sincerely,

Laxmi Ramasubramanian
ACSP President 2021-2023

Rayman Mohamed
ACSP VP/President Elect 2021-2023
