

Draft Themes for President's Agenda 2015-2017
Proposed core theme for 2015-2017: Relevance

Building on the president's agenda (June Thomas) for 2013-2015, Connections, I would like propose that we use the theme of "relevance" to progress the connections built during June Thomas's agenda.

1. Relevance of ACSP for institutional members and faculty
  - a. Conferences – continue
    - i. Integrating the New Chair's School into the Annual Conference
    - ii. Revisioning the Administrator's Conference as a "retreat" for Chairs, Deans, and other administrators, every other year (led by the Committee on the Academy)
    - iii. Ensuring the quality of Annual Conferences, and expanding services (e.g., conference app)
  - b. Guide to Programs – continue
    - i. Online and searchable (in process for 2015-2016)
    - ii. Able to update by departments easily and frequently
  - c. ACSP webpage – continue
    - i. New design (in process for 2015-2016)
    - ii. Opportunities for increasing existing interest group engagement (all interest groups will have "community page")
    - iii. Integration of newer version of PLANET, PhD Bowling League into website
2. Relevance of ACSP for diverse groups in the community, profession, and academy
  - a. Continue work during June Thomas's presidency
    - i. Pre-doctoral workshop (Committee on Diversity)
    - ii. Workshop for junior faculty of color (Committee on Diversity)
    - iii. Administrator's Conference, Diversity Workshop (Committee on Diversity)
    - iv. Preparing for the Job Market workshop and webinars
    - v. Resume books and syllabus books (FWIG, POCIG)
    - vi. Support POCIG, FWIG, GPEIG
3. Relevance of ACSP for profession and the public
  - a. Continue work during June Thomas's presidency
    - i. (Re)branding of ACSP (in process for 2015-2016)
    - ii. Collaboration with APA, AICP, PAB on examining declining enrollments
    - iii. Collaboration with APA on pipeline to planning profession
  - b. Highlight ongoing work across disciplines; outreach and possible partnerships with scholarly and practitioner associations
    - i. Public health
    - ii. Urban Design
    - iii. Global
