MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

MoU

Given the complementary interests of the membership of the Association of European Schools of Planning (AESOP) and the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning – ACSP

The Executive Committee of ACSP and the Executive Committee of AESOP herewith agree to, for the mutual benefit of both organizations:

- Have an open attitude to exploring collaborations, with specific collaboration agreements being drawn up when appropriate opportunities arise,
- Establish and maintain open channels of communication, particularly about annual conference and workshop opportunities,
- Maintain links to each other's web pages,
- Provide complimentary registration to the annual conference for two members of the counterpart association’s leadership or other individuals designated by their leadership,
- Pursue, as interest and opportunities are present, collaborations on joint annual conference sessions that will prompt scholarly dialogue across members of the two associations,
- Foster knowledge exchange and development of PhDs and early career researchers, and
- Include additional dimension(s) to collaboration based upon mutual agreement.

The present MoU is issued in two original signed copies to be held by the Secretary General of AESOP and the Secretary of ACSP.

This MoU shall remain in effect until either organisation communicates in writing to the counterpart organisation the termination of the MoU.

Date/City: July 14, 2019
President of AESOP Venice
Prof. Benjamin Davy

Date/City: July 14, 2019
President of ACSP
Prof. Weiping Wu