The Association for Driver Rehabilitation Specialists

Website Advertising Media Kit

Showcase your products and services directly on the Association for Driver Rehabilitation Specialists (ADED) website. The ADED is the premiere organization representing more than 1,700 professionals focused on driver education, training, and transportation equipment modifications for persons with disabilities.

Advertising Opportunities

To increase your visibility and attract more interest to your business there are several options available. All options run for a full year (twelve months).

Leader Board Placement ($5,000):

Showcase your business in the most prominent area of the homepage. Your advertisement will be visible above the fold to all site visitors landing on the home page. Size: 1000px x 320px

Premier Side Rail Placement ($2,700):

Promote your business throughout the entire ADED website on the right side rail. Great visibility! Size: 300px x 250px

Premium Footer Placement ($2,000):

Brand your company as a valued resource through a footer advertisement placed at the bottom of every web page throughout the ADED website. Size: 728px x 90px
