

Strategic Partnerships Committee Job Description

Job Title:	Strategic Partnerships Volunteer
Objective:	Use experience and professional connections to help grow and develop AASP's existing and future partner relationships.
Duties and Responsibilities:	Within the designated time frames and during the AASP Annual Meeting, work together with colleagues to develop new ideas for broadening and strengthening the AASP's partner/sponsor relationships. Help establish the criteria and framework for partner/sponsor relationships and develop new opportunities.
Qualifications and Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• At least three years of experience in Advancement Services• Excellent communication skills• Time to dedicate to this professional volunteer opportunity (approximately 3-5 hours per month)• Commitment to attend monthly telecommunication meetings and the AASP Annual Meeting
Lines of Communication	Report directly to the Strategic Partnership Committee Chairs(s). Work closely with fellow volunteers to complete assignments. Meeting annually with volunteer community to exchange ideas and lessons learned.
Orientation and Training	Read AASP by-laws; be familiar with the mission and goals of the Strategic Partnerships Committee; be familiar with the existing AASP partner relationships
Times Needed and Place of Work:	Three to five hours per month for the length of appointment by telecommunication, outside assignments as needed, three days during AASP Annual Meeting
Benefits	Contribution to the Advancement Services profession; association with professional colleagues; exposure to industry partners; recognition of contributions and expertise among professional community.
Challenges	Completing work assignment in a timely fashion is critical to keeping the committee's deliverables on track, particularly for presentation at the AASP Annual Meeting.
Satisfaction	Rewards from being in meaningful conversations with colleagues, a sense of satisfaction from making an important contribution to the delivery of critical information to members of our field, significance of contributing to professional standards while helping a new organization get started in effective service delivery.