Thank You

For Your Generous Contributions

In our work with students, we often stress the importance of philanthropy. We believe it enhances their membership experience and demonstrates a value of our broader community and society. Our donors also believe in its importance and demonstrate this through their generous gifts to the AFA Foundation. AFA is able to provide powerful and impactful educational programs and initiatives through this philanthropy of individuals and organizations. Their philanthropy allows us to respond to the changing landscape of higher education and our profession with exceptional programming that is generally at little to no cost to the membership. It allows access to events such as the Annual Meeting and IFI that would not be possible for some in this economic climate. It allows us to look to the future and know that we will be able to build the best pipeline of leaders through professional development opportunities. Simply put, philanthropy allows us to be our best.

The AFA Foundation board would like to thank the individuals and organizations that generously gave to the AFA Foundation, and we publicly recognize them through this Annual Report. We encourage all who care about the future of AFA to continue to give or consider giving. The emphasis on philanthropy is one of the characteristics that makes our fraternity and sorority experience great. We thank you for demonstrating that same commitment to AFA through your generous support of the AFA Foundation.

Sincerely,

Christian Wiggins, Chair, FarmHouse
Carolyn Whittier, Ph.D., Vice Chair, Valparaiso University
Andy Huston, Treasurer, Sigma Alpha Mu
Ryan Lugabihl, Secretary, The Catalyst Agency
Shawn Eagleburger, Pi Beta Phi
Allison Foster, Alpha Chi Omega
Hara Henshell, Phi Mu
Jennifer Pierce, University of Tennessee
Amanda Sloan, Alpha Delta Pi
Bonnie Wunsch, Alpha Epsilon Phi
Ex-Officio Wendi Kinney, AFA President, SUNY-Geneseo
