Managing Director | PNC Capital Markets, Foreign Exchange

Tom Loffredio has nearly 20 years of financial markets experience in capital markets and international banking across the globe.

After graduating Summa Cum Laude with degrees in Economics and Ecology from Emory University in Atlanta, GA, he began his full time professional career with Bloomberg Markets in New York. Tom then joined Wells Fargo's expanding capital markets group in 2003. In 2012, Tom moved to Hong Kong, China to begin Wells Fargo's interest rate sales and trading business in Asia-Pacific. After a successful launch, Tom moved to London, England in 2015 to expand coverage of clients across Europe, the Middle East and Africa. After nearly 5 years as an ex-pat, Tom and his family moved back to Atlanta in 2017 when he joined PNC as a Managing Director for International/Foreign Exchange, responsible for client relationships across the Southeast.
