

Mid-December Membership Forum – Your Chance to Learn More About AHMP’s Direction and Provide Input

All AHMP members are encouraged to participate in a year-end online Town Hall Forum on Wednesday, December 12, at noon ET. This interactive program led by AHMP President Bruce Donato will provide an update on our progress in 2018 and highlight plans for the coming year. Plenty of time will be included for your questions and comments.

Topics to be covered will include:

- Current year financial results and projections for 2019.
- Implementation of membership-approved changes to the governance structure.
- Activities already held and being planned by the newly created Young Professionals group.
- Restructuring of the Organizational Membership program.
- The forthcoming launch of locally based “sections” in communities not served by AHMP chapters.
- Preliminary plans for the 2019 Annual Conference in Atlanta.

Advance registration is not required. To participate in the Town Hall, on December 12 at noon, go to <https://zoom.us/j/753372353> or dial (669) 900-6833, Meeting ID 753 372 353. The Town Hall will also be recorded, and the recording will be posted to the AHMP website.
