Lang [Melchior]: married Ekhart {Catharina} 24 April 1766 in Luebeck (Mai&Marquardt#625 & KS142). Lang [J.Georg]: son of the former {Joh.} of\(^1\)\(^2\) Erlang married in Woerhd 29 May 1766 Fesinger {Appolonia} (Mai&Marquardt #817). KS142 said he was from\(^1\)\(^2\) Erlangen. On 31 July 1766 {Johann & Anna} arrived in Russia, he said to be from\(^1\)\(^2\) Viernau (Kulberg3867). Later in 1766 {Gorge & Apolonia} in Oranienbaum took transport for the Volga (2250-2251). Not found in any published FSL. {Georg} was a widower in Zug in 1798 (Zg29), but they are listed in no FSL nor in T, nor is there any indication they moved to Zug from another colony, so they are possible Zug first settlers.

Lang [Johann]: he married in Buedingen on 8 March 1766 Bergmann {A. Maria} (Mai&Marquardt#386, KS121, 142). I could not find them in a published FSL.

It also said by the Buedingen ML to be home\(^1\)\(^2\) to Schmidt {Christian} who in 1766 married a Rohn woman in Buedingen (Mai&Marquardt#542); they may have settled in Brabander.

Langdorfof, Lothringen: an unidentified place said by the Hoelzel FSL to be home\(^1\)\(^2\) to an Allerborn/Ahlerborn family.

In Jan 1765 with wife and 7 children he reregistered in a Danish colony (EEE p.497). By Aug 1766 they had settled in Schaefer FSL #4 which said he was from¹UC Schoenberg. Lange{Gertraud}: KS142 says this widow with 5 children left Bieber or Lohrhaupten in 1765 for Russia. No further information was found.

Langen GL, is some 8 miles N of Darmstadt city and said by the Frank FSL to be in the state of Hessen-Darmstadt and home¹UC to a Hof family. It is also some 8 miles SW of Offenbach, and is said by the Roethling FSL to be in the Offenbach region of Hessen and to be home¹UC to a Grein family. Said by the Mueller FSL to be home¹UC to a Both family; Kuhlberg gives the state as Darmstadt.

Langenalb, Baden-Durlach: is 11 miles SE of Karlsruhe city, and was said by the Galka FSL to be home¹UC to Dalingier/Dahlinger {Christoph} and {Maria} families. Using a report from the Evangelischer Oberkirchenrat, Landeskirchliches Archiv, abstracting from Langenalb church records, Dick Kraus proved this origin: the widow Maria (nee Wackenhut) had married her Dalingier husband in 1735 in Langenalb – the record provides birthdates for both bride and groom and the names of each of their fathers.

Langenbach GL, Isenburg: an unidentified place said by the Kolb FSL to be home¹UC to a Mai family. Isenburg surely is a mistake and this place must actually be the next entry.

Langenbeutingen, [Hohenlohe Principality] (now in Baden-Wuerttemberg): is 7.5 km WNW of Oehringen city. Gerhard Lang evidently found the Frank{J.Heinrich} family here before they moved on to Denmark and to Doenhof in Russia.

Langenbrand{Gl}, Bieselberg [parish], Calw [Amt], Wuerttemberg: the GCRA thinks this the most likely origin of the Raschez/Rometsch/Rumetz family that went, probably via South Prussia, to Kassel.

Langenbrombach, Breuberg Condominium, was the place Hoffmann{J.Heinrich} lived just before immigrating to Frank (Gieg1).

Langendorf{Gl}: an unidentified place said by the Ober-Monjou FSL to be home¹UC to a Fleischmann family. There are 9 places of this name in Germany and 5 in Poland and the Czech Republic.

Langenprozelten\textsuperscript{GL}, Kurmainz: is said by the Roethling FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Rebart family. This surely is the same place as the preceding entry … the area being within Kurmainz in those days.

Langensalza\textsuperscript{GL}, [Kur]-Sachsen: is now Bad Langensalza, Thueringen, some 56 miles NE of Fulda, Hessen, and 19 miles NW of Erfurt. Said by the Jost FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Hagen family. Said by the Kolb FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Reuber family. The Buedingen ML says this Reiber man married in 1766 a Ringel woman (Mai&Marquardt#371); however he shows up in Kolb in 1767 with a Roth wife. Said by the Stahl-am-Karanam FSL (#18) to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to Wenzel/Vitzel\{J.Gottfried\}.

Langensulzbach\textsuperscript{GL}, Weissenburg Kreis, Elsass: is now called Langensulzbach, is some 10 miles SW of Wissembourg, Alsace, France, and was home to an Eider family that settled in Hoffnungstal, Bessarabia.

Langeraltar\{?\}: an unidentified place said by the Katharinenstadt FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Vollmer family. This might be either Langenargen, Baden-Wuerttemberg (18 miles SE of Konstanz), or perhaps Langensalza, Thuengen.

On 15 Sept 1766 this Deming (?) couple arrived in Russia, he said to be from Sachsen (Kulberg #45270). Later in 1766 Deming {Fridrick Gottfried & A.Catrina} with no children took transport in Oranienbaun for the Volga (T234-235). Not found in any published FSL.

Langlitz {Nicolaus}: KS142 says he left Spangenberg with his step-son {J.Peter} and his Orth father-in-law. On 14 Sept 1766 he, wife {Anna}, 2 sons and {Heinrich} his father-in-law arrived in Russia, he said to be from Darmstadt (Kulberg #6482). By 16 Sept 1767 he, wife {A.Margaretha}, son {J.Heinrich} and step-and Spangenberg step-son {J.Peter} had settled at Jagodnaja Poljana FSL #68, he variously said by the Kromm and the Pleve versions of the FSL to be from Nidda or from Eichelsdorf, Nidda (p.32), [Amt, Hessen-Darmstadt], or from Ober Seemen, Geder Amt, Stollberg near Nidda (p.34).

Langmacher {Marx/Markus}: married Janssen {Margaretha} 16 June 1766 in Luebeck (Maik & Marquardt #96). Not found in T. She was the widow of Krus {Jacob} and was simultaneously listed as head of her own one-person household at Stahl-am-Tarlyk FSL #68, said to be from Minden in the same Duchy. {Markus & Wibke} evidently had married immediately after {Jacob}’s 13 Oct 1767 death (FSL #68) and just before the 13 Aug 1767 Stahl census was recorded. Not found in T. In 1798 Maier {Simon} age 72, a widower recently arrived from Mariental, was head of a Stahl household which included a 7 yr-old boy, possibly a son of Maier and his Brinkmann wife {Elisabeth}, and her two Metzler sons ({Elisabeth} was a Metzler widow), plus her two Langmacher step-children (she also a Langmacher widow), as well as the Borger husband of her Langmacher step-daughter. (Maik 1798: St 17)

Lanhausen: an unidentified place said by the Stephan FSL to be home to a Helfenbein family. The only Lanhausen I can find is 9 km SSW of Bremerhaven city centre and then apparently was in Bremen Duchy, Kurbraunschweig. Stumpp (p.134) either misread the record or took Lanhausen to be a mistake for Landenhausen which is 6 km SE of Lauterbach city and was then in Reidesel Barony.

Lanken: said by the Sheherbakovka FSL to be home to the Riffel family. There were at least 3 Lankens in the Germanies. One was 31 km E of Hamburg city centre, in Lauenburg Duchy, Kurbraunschweig.

Lapp, Carl/Karl: of Reformed faith, he arrived single in Russia on 1 May 1766 with siblings {Christian, Johann and Anna} in his household (Kulberg 473). None of them were found in T. By 1767 he and new wife {A.Margaretha} [she may have been a widow since there was a 4.5 year old son in the household – ed.] had settled in Frank FSL #14 which said he was from Pferdsbach (?), Isenburg. Bill Pickelhaupt says he found Carl’s origin.

Lapp, Christian: of Reformed faith, he arrived single in Russia on 1 May 1766 in the household of his brother Carl (Kulberg 473). He was not found in T. By 1767 he, still single, had settled in Frank FSL #31 which said he was from Pferdsbach (?), Isenburg. Bill Pickelhaupt says he found Christian’s origin.

Lapp: listed by both the 1816 Kassel census (#109) and KS:353 without origin, but said by the 1816 Glueckstal census (#94) to be from Dienenbach, Maulbronn parish, Vaihingen [Amt], Wuerttemberg. Using FHL (1,187,160), the GCRA verified this origin. See the GCRA book for more.

Laubach\[^{SL}\] , Buedingen[sic]: said by the Krasnoyar FSL to be home\[^{UC}\] to a Griesmann family. Laubach is only 18 miles NNW of Buedingen city, but it was the seat of its own state, Solms-Laubach and it did not belong to Buedingen or Isenburg.
Laubach\textsuperscript{GS}: short for the independent state of Solms-Lauchbach County which was seated in the town of Laubach, which is some 13 miles ESE of Giessen city. None of the following references mentions a locality: The Lang wife of a Bastron man was from Laubach; the couple went to Frank. Said by the Grimm FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Worms family, but the Buedingen ML says that this Wurm man from\textsuperscript{UC} Freyensee married a Gruen woman in 1766 (Mai&Marquard#501). Said by the Koehler FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Diel family; the Buedingen ML said this family was from\textsuperscript{UC} Hoehst in the Wetterau (Mai&Marquard#709); Hoehst probably was in Hanau County, just S of Solms-Lauchbach County lands. Said by the Krasnoyay FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to Baecker, Diel, Eckart/Eckardt, Eusel, Felsinger, Fischer, Fritz, Hessler, Idt, Jaeger, Keller, Kins?, Kraus, Kuenzler, Lenz, Meier, Pfeifer, Pich, Schad, Schaefer, Schetz, Schneider, Schreiner, Wieser, and perhaps Schneider and Zimmer families. Said by the Ober-Monjou FSL to be home\textsuperscript{UC} to a Metzer/Metzler family.
