Zoeller: married Leigs {Christoph} in Rosslau 9 April 1766 (Mai & Marquardt #930). KS142 has {Henriette} and the wrong year: 1765. No further information.

Zoeller: married Teich/Deich/Thiede to David in Rosslau 8 April 1766 (Mai & Marquardt #919, KS124). They arrived in Russia 4 July 1766 (Kulberg 1263). Later in 1766 in Oranienbaum they took ship for the Volga (T5374-5375). By 7 June 1767 they had settled at Orlovskaya FSL #49. In 1798 he may be listed as Thiede {Johann} with a Mueller wife {Maria} (Mai1798: Or40)?

Zoeller: married Gottfried & Wilhelmine: said by the Orlovskaya FSL #11a to be step-children living in the Goldorf family (#11) which would indicate that frau Goldorf {Sophia} might previously have been a frau Zoeller. By 1798 {Wilhelmine} had become the (3rd?) wife of Hank {Christian} (Mai1798: Or37).

Zoeller: said by the 1798 Orlovskaya census to be the maiden name of the 3rd wife of Hank {Christian} (Mai1798: Or36).

Zoeller: married Leigs {Christoph} in Rosslau 9 April 1766 (Mai & Marquardt #930). KS142 mistakenly said the year was 1765. I did not find this couple in any later record.

Zoellnitz, Anhalt-Dessau Principality: this is now Sollnitz some 5 miles SE of Dessau city, and said by the Orlovskaya FSL to be home to a Kessler family. Kulberg said this was in the state of Dessau.

Later they were recorded in the church books of Neu-Saratowka colony near St. Petersburg (E6. P.654).

Zorn[^FK]: J. Martin: Dessau archival records say with wife and 4 children he left Dessau in 1766 having come there from Graefenhainichen (Main&Marquardt#1175). Said by the Orlovskaya FSL #19 to be from[^UC] Graefenhainichen; a Hank father-in-law was living with them which would indicate that Frau Zorn’s maiden name was Hank. However, the 1798 Orlovskaya census gives her maiden name as Haupt (Mai1798:35).

Zorn[^FN]: (Benedict): said by the Volmer FSL (#42) to be from Gernsheim, Kurmainz. Using Gersheim parish records, Brent Mai proved he was born in Gernsheim 1 March 1738. Brent also says he married in Landau-in-der-Pfalz on 4 February 1764 to Kuehnenbergh [Margaretha], but his source for that statement is unclear in http://cvgs.cu-Portland.EDU/Origins/Z/zorn_volmer.cfm.

Zorn[^FN]: (Michael): KS165 says with wife and 4 children left Dessau Amt having moved there from Graefenhainichen. No further information.

ZuerichVV (aka Eckardt, Eckert, Eckhardt and Sorkino): a Lutheran German colony founded in 1767, moved in 1770, on the western side of the Volga river not far from Basel and Wittmann. To the best of my knowledge no copy of its First Settlers’ List has been found and published. Anyone learning of such a document, please let us know immediately. However, we have origin information on a few of its first or nearly first settlers – this information is available in “Kolonisten des Lokators Beaurregard, die voruebergehend in anderen Kolonien angiesiedelt wurden” in pages 349-380 of Pleve, Einwanderung ..., vol.4. The numbers in parens below indicate the position of a family in that list, identified in this Index as Lk. In addition, we have names of some who probably were first settlers here because either (1) other colonies said they moved in from Zuerich or they were living in Zuerich in 1798 – and in both cases I found no record saying they had moved from any other village to Zuerich, and they were not found in any printed FSL; such families are listed below as ‘of unknown origin’ and have no number in parens following their name. Placenames in italics are taken from Kuhlberg lists as printed in the Pleve books.

ZuernNN: listed in the Bergdorf 1858 census (KS:668) as Zirp/Zuern?without origin. The GCRA, using FHL(1,240,200) proved that Zuern is the correct name, originating in Adolzfurt, Oehringen [Amt], Wuerttemberg.

Zug [aka Gattung, Maruenskoje]: a Roman Catholic German colony founded in 1767, moved in 1770, on the eastern side of the Volga river not far from Schoenchen. To the best of my knowledge no copy of its First Settlers’ List has been found and published. Anyone learning of such a document, please let us know immediately. However, we have origin information on a few of its first or nearly first settlers – this information is available in “Kolonisten des Lokators Beaufregard, die voruebergehend in anderen Kolonien angesiedelt wuerden” in pages 349-380 of Pleve, Einwanderung …, vol.4. The numbers in parens below indicate the position of a family in that list, identified in this Index as Lk. In addition, I have identified two sets of names of others who possibly, or probably, were Zug first settlers. One set is composed of those listed in the Zug 1798 census, and, though old enough, were not found in any other colony’s FSL, and were not listed in the 1780-1797 “movement tables” as coming from some other colony to Zug (those tables are preserved in Mai 1798). A second much smaller set is composed of those listed in some other colony’s 1798 census with the notation they had “come from Zug” with no indication anywhere that they had earlier been in any other colony prior to Zug. I consider families in both sets as prime Zug first settler suspects. In the following list the colony’s initials and household number where they were found in 1798 are noted. Placenames in italics are taken from Kuhlberg lists as printed in the book Pleve edited:

from Dehing? [sic?], Wuerttemberg [Duchy]: (Braun)37;
from Fonnershain? [sic] Hessen: (Schmidt) [Nicolaus]146;

from Kelberbein?, [Kur]-Pfalz: (Kopp/Kohn) [Theobald]159; from Kougend?: (Fuchs) [Peter]145;
from Muehlbach: (Hermann) [Matthias]139;
from Neustadt, [Kur]-Mainz: (Diel/Diehl) [Anton] 79); from Riegersdorf?: (Lotz) [Christopher] 18);
from Sassendorf, [Bamberg Bishopric]: (Stocklein) [Simon]122; from Vowelt?: (Heim/Keim) [Martin]75.

Together they probably were among Beideck’s First Settlers. She died prior to the 1798 census.
