

Remembering Charles & Ray Eames

A Granddaughter's Memories

An intimate view of how renowned designers Charles and Ray Eames lived and worked at their home—Case Study House #8 through the eyes of their granddaughter, Lucia Dewey Atwood.

Thursday, September 6th | 5:30 - 8:00 pm

Herman Miller, 3641 Holdrege Ave, Suite 100, Los Angeles 90016
Parking is located behind the showroom; street parking is available as well

Cocktails and appetizers

Please RSVP to Andrea Raabe by Monday, September 3rd
andrea_raabe@hermanmiller.com

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Lucia Dewey Atwood is a Board Member and Director of the 250 Year Project at the Charles and Ray Eames House Preservation Foundation, Inc, and granddaughter of Charles and Ray Eames.

Event Hosted By:

