Headquartered in the historic Hallidie Building—America’s first glass-curtain-wall building, designed by Willis Polk and completed in 1917—AIA San Francisco (AIASF) is the Bay Area’s leading destination for architecture and design. Our state-of-the-art facility received LEED-CI Gold certification from the U.S. Green Building Council and provides a comfortable environment for both day and evening events. Centrally located in Downtown San Francisco with easy access to public transportation on both local and regional systems. Built-in audio visual, adjustable lighting, and movable walls accommodate events in a wide variety of configurations for events ranging from 8-195 attendees.
ABOUT AIASF’S GALLERY SPACE
