

AIMS

Association of Independent
Maryland & DC Schools

DIGESTIBLES FOR DISTANCE LEARNING

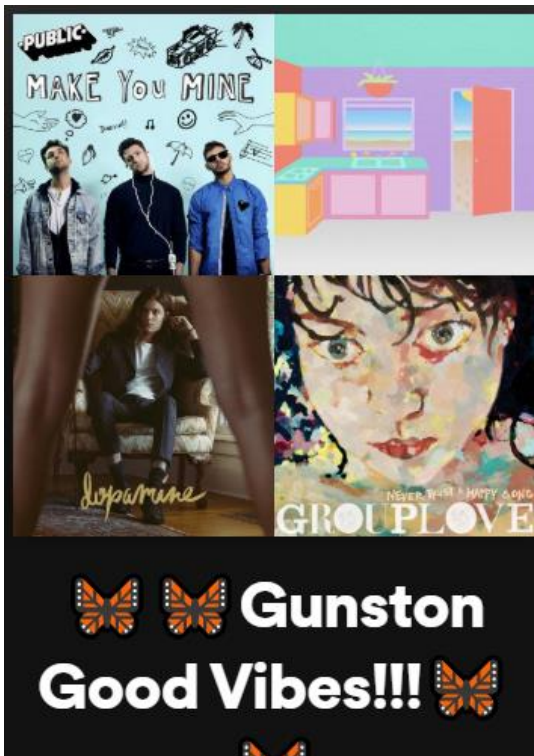

Small Ideas for a Big Job!

DIGESTIBLES #7

We're Getting the Hang of Teaching Fully Online....

There are some really creative ideas coming out of our independent school community for staying connected as we're socially distancing. Below, find a couple of those ideas you might want to try, and an announcement from Time for Kids that will make lesson planning easier!

Alecia at AIMS

What's The Soundtrack of Your Social Distancing? Bingo Anyone?

Connelly School of the Holy Child has instituted virtual Bingo Night. All the proceeds go to charity--service learning online! In your case, it could be your annual fund if you like! Check it out on their Facebook page.

The Gunston School has created their own collaborative school soundtrack--Gunston Good Vibes on Spotify. What a neat challenge! If you want to create your class's (or school's) collaborative playlist, you can do that with the link below.

Learn More

Time for Kids Free for the Rest of the Year

Great news! The entire Time for Kids digital library is now free for download through May. These are grade-specific with worksheets and quizzes built-in!

Learn More