

Albany County Bar Foundation
Domestic Violence Grant Application | 2019

INTRODUCTION

For well over a decade, the Albany County Bar Foundation (ACBF) has raised funds, through its annual Law Day Run Against Domestic Violence, to support grant funding to organizations that assist individuals and their children who are in need of access to justice or services to overcome and end domestic violence.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must meet the following qualifications in order to be considered for the grant:

- a) The organization must be a 501c(3) or hold another charitable designation recognized by the Internal Revenue Service and be in good standing.
- b) The organization must be located within Albany County, or provides services in Albany County.
- c) The organization must provide services assisting victims of domestic violence, which may be accomplished through a variety of services. These services can be provided by the organization on a “one on one” basis or through general education and awareness to the community, including, but not limited to:
  - o Pro bono legal services to low income individuals and their children in matters related to safety, financial support and custody. Pro bono legal services can include:
    - Legal advice and representation relating to their abuse, orders of protection, paternity or child support orders, visitation of children and charges of child neglect due to domestic violence, etc.
    - Free consultations on non-criminal legal issues resulting from domestic violence.
  - o Emergency shelter for victims of domestic violence and their children.
  - o Intervention services for individuals who are abusive and/or violent in intimate relationships.
  - o Support and advocacy for victims of sexual assault and domestic violence.
  - o Training on various topic areas for domestic violence program staff, advocates and stakeholders to improve understanding of current issues on domestic violence, socio-political understanding of domestic violence, cultural competency, offender accountability, the impact on society, effects on family members, safety plans, service provision, lethality, counseling, substance abuse, mental illness, relevant provisions of state and federal law, working operations and limits of various elements of the civil, criminal justice and legal system, and immigration.
  - o Advocacy with the criminal justice system and law enforcement agencies in Albany County.
  - o Assistance with food/transportation/medical needs.
  - o Shelter or assistance, including pro bono legal services, related to family pets or animals.

- d) The organization must have an established policy or statement regarding equal opportunities in the delivery of its services regardless of sex, race, religion, national origin, creed, color, sexual orientation, or marital status.
