EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS
Who We Are

The IBRS conference is promoted and hosted by the American Bio Recovery Association (ABRA). We represent specialized contractors who mitigate and restore the unthinkable.

What is Bio Recovery?
Bio Recovery is the act of mitigating and remediating conditions resulting from the release of biological hazards. This may include crime and trauma mitigation (bloodborne and body fluids), suicide, outbreak response, zoonotic diseases, foodborne diseases, public health threats, hoarding and clandestine drug labs.

Attendees include:
- Administrators
- Chief Executive Officers

ABOUT THE ATTENDEES

Direct Exposure - No other conference gets you this much direct exposure to the end user. IBRS attendees have a very niche business. These unsung heros have to deal with real life tragedy and infectious agents. Much like a trauma unit at a hospital, these specialty contractors mitigate circumstances of unthinkable events.

Service and equipment needs are similar to any other emergency contractor but the risks are far higher. The equipment and services provided must be equal to the task, be durable, and high quality.
