On behalf of the local, volunteer organizing committee, we hope you will consider supporting the 38th annual Great Rappahannock Whitewater Canoe Race (GRWCR).

This classic Fredericksburg event takes place every year on the first Saturday in June. Races are open to participants of all ages and include both whitewater and flatwater canoeing, kayaking, SUP, and even canoe poling. In addition, there are races for Scouts and free races for youth.

The race is organized by a dedicated group of volunteers who believe in giving back to the Fredericksburg community.

Proceeds from the 2018 annual race will support:

- Friends of the Rappahannock
- ACA's Youth Development Program
- Fredericksburg Fire Department's River Rescue Team
- Fredericksburg Chapter of Team River Runner
- Rappahannock Valley Amateur Radio Club

Recognition for support:

- Logo or Name on race website
- Recognition in race related social media and in race related eBlasts
- Ability to hang a banner on-site at Race Headquarters

How to Donate:

- Please make checks payable to: American Canoe Association
- On the subject line, please write: GRWCR Donation

38th annual Great Rappahannock Whitewater Canoe Race Saturday, June 2nd, 2018 Fredericksburg, Virginia

Along with the local, volunteer organizing committee, the ACA will host the 38th annual Great Rappahannock Whitewater Canoe Race (GRWCR) in Fredericksburg, VA on Saturday, June 2, 2018.

This classic Fredericksburg event takes place every year on the first Saturday in June. Races are open to participants of all ages and include both whitewater and flatwater canoeing, kayaking, and Stand Up Paddleboarding. In addition, there are races for youth under 13 and Scouts.

Online registration for the GRWCR will be available in April, and participants can also register on-site starting at 7:45am on race day at Old Mill Park. Proceeds from this annual race support Friends of the Rappahannock, the ACA's Youth Development Program, the Fredericksburg Fire Department's River Rescue Team, the Rappahannock Valley Amateur Radio Club and the Fredericksburg Chapter of Team River Runner.

This year, the GRWCR is once again part of the Rock the River FXBG event (www.rocktheriverfxbg.com). This all-day, stewardship-focused festival features environmental education programs from local conservation organizations, a running race, ultimate Frisbee, kids activities, local artists, and a riverfront craft beer and music festival.

About the ACA

Founded in 1880, The American Canoe Association (ACA) is a national nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization serving the broader paddling public by providing education related to all aspects of paddling; stewardship support to help protect paddling environments; and sanctioning of programs and events to promote paddlesport competition and recreation. The ACA has over 30,000 members at both an individual and organizational level and sponsors over 1,400 events each year, including 200 races. The ACA education program has an annual estimated outreach of 800,000 people. In addition, the ACA is the National Governing Body for Olympic and Paralympic paddlesports.
