Lufthansa Group Partner Airlines offer a comprehensive global route network linking major cities around the world. Special prices and conditions are being offered to participants, exhibitors, invited guests and travel companions attending the 2019 Academy of Marketing Science World Marketing Congress in Edinburg, Scotland.

To make a reservation, please click on www.lh.com/event-flight-booking and enter the EVENT (or ACCESS) CODE: USZQITC in the "Event Code" area, then click the "Proceed to Booking" button. This will open an online booking platform that will automatically calculate the discount being offered, or provide you with a better offer if a promotional fare is available. Please note that roundtrip flights with departures from regional airports throughout USA may not be available. You will receive an error message indicating this when attempting to reserve a flight departing from a regional airport.

Please note that the POP-UP blocker on your browser must be disabled otherwise the booking platform will not open.
