Annual Anodizing Conference and Exposition

AUTHORS’ GUIDELINES

The Aluminum Anodizers Council’s Annual Anodizing Conference is recognized for maintaining high standards of quality. Authors are kindly requested to follow the guidelines outlined below.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

Authors’ manuscripts, along with completed License of Copyright forms, are to be received eight weeks prior to the date of the Conference. To facilitate correction, manuscripts should be submitted as e-mail attachments in Word (.doc); Adobe (.pdf) is acceptable. Copyright forms bearing signatures should be submitted by post or e-mail.

MANUSCRIPTS

Prepare your manuscript using MS Word (.doc). All authors are expected to proofread material carefully before submitting papers for publication and will be expected to make modifications to the paper, if required. The published proceedings will contain the final formatted manuscript; for consistency, all authors are urged to adhere to the following guidelines.

Tables, Figures, Formulae, and References

All Tables and Figures (the latter including all graphic elements such as photographs, illustrations, and diagrams) must be placed or embedded within the text of the paper as close to the reference as possible. Do not use text boxes. Tables should be numbered sequentially apart from Figures; table labels appear above theTables. Formulae (including equations) are numbered separately. All other graphics (diagrams, charts, photographs, etc.) are treated as Figures and should be numbered sequentially apart from Tables; figure labels appear with captions below their respective Figures. Authors should save all Tables, Figures, and Formulae after submitting the paper in case items need to be repositioned for publication of the manuscript. References should appear at the end of the paper; citations should be identified with square brackets.

All papers must be written in English. Avoid abbreviations; where acronyms are appropriate, spell out the first use. Disable hyperlinks.

Completed Manuscripts are to be received five weeks in advance of the conference.
