To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Got this as a forward?

+1-608-443-2477 • 2424 American Lane, Madison, WI 53704

Share this email:

Conclusions

Results of physiotherapy intervention, their interaction, as well as type of comparator group and risks of bias.

Patients cited physical limitation, loss of interest in sport, and fear of reinjury as reasons for

Clinical Relevance:

Results:

the estimated percentage returning at 6, 9, 12, 18, and 24-month follow-up.

Assessment of Risk Factors:

Patients:

Return to Sport After Anterior Cruciate Ligament Reconstruction in the Skeletally

Please join me in welcoming the 2016-2017 Student AOASM Executive Board (pictured your eyes peeled for information about upcoming webinars and student opportunities.

For students: Please reach out to us if there is anything that we can help with either through Angela Cavanna. Their passion and experience will serve us well throughout the year.

A special shout-out to our mentors and national advisers for the year, Dr. Kate Quinn and Dr.

sports medicine.

advocate and create opportunities for osteopathic students to pursue careers in primary care

extremely passionate group of officers at the national level this year, and I am happy to say

The Student AOASM Executive Board is excited for another fantastic year. We have an

SAOASM 2016-2017 Executive Board

Neverland” with Amy Yakima;

College of Sports Medicine spoke about the sharing of knowledge and resources between sports medicine and performing arts medicine organizations that is the main mission of Athletes and the Arts in New York City!

Athletes and the Arts

January 2, 2017

Dear Students,

as we get ready to start a new academic and professional year. Please remember that in student portion of our new website. Dr. Kate Quinn will be doing a lecture for our students at Mentor of the Year Award. After discussion, an ad hoc committee has been established to Further, at the July Board Meeting, three position papers were reviewed and approved for reality.

development, which will take our wish list and begin writing code to make our new website a

The Website Committee has been given the green light to move on to phase two of available on the AOA website.

Meeting. An overview of key policy decisions made at the House of Delegates also is representation at the House of Delegates worked hard to be sure that our members and the report as they continue to educate and communicate with our European colleagues about Sportsosteopathy Course in Cologne should be on their way home. I eagerly await their women of Team USA upon their return.

Looking forward to hearing from our members who cared for the men and

Team USA fared during the recently completed 2016 Summer Olympics in

From the President: R. Rob Franks, DO, FAOASM

Responding to the survey was 75% (250 of 333) which was

3

1

Using meta-epidemiology, we report on the effects of a ‘physiotherapy’ intervention on self-

Related Concussion

NCAA: Inter-Association Best Practices: Diagnosis and Management of Sports

Spine Injury Task Force Statement: Appropriate Pre-Hospital Care of the Spine Injured

5