In the October 2017 edition of Sidelines you will find the following content:

- What's New in October 2017!
- Exercise therapy for functional capacity in chronic diseases: an members of AOASM! Click there regarding that topic. It was an excellent way to start this year for student Rock Doc participates with the crowd to sing, dance, and wave hands side to side.
- It's 20 minutes until show time, and the DO is invited to the show to enjoy the performance.
- The Doctor sets up the treatments.
- The current diagnosis was a surprise potpourri of cases similar to what can present to clinic major performance arts medicine!