

AOCD Privacy Policy

The American Osteopathic College of Dermatology (AOCD) is committed to maintaining the privacy of the personal information of visitors to its site, including AOCD members. We will never sell members' personal information, including addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses. Our policies are designed to disclose the information collected and how it will be used. The terms of the privacy policy do not govern personal information furnished through any means other than this website (such as by telephone or mail). We will make every attempt to only provide professional office addresses of our members, since these can be obtained through internet searches.

Email Address and Other Personal Information

Personal information such as postal and email addresses that you provide to the AOCD through our website may be used internally for maintaining member records, marketing purposes and alerting customers or members of additional services available. Such information may also be provided to selected vendors that AOCD believes may have products or services of interest to our members. Phone numbers that you provide may also be used by the AOCD when questions about products or services arise. Registered site members have the ability to conduct a "Member Search" to obtain contact information of fellow members. Members may adjust settings in the "Edit Bio" area of the website to dictate which portions of their contact information should be available in the "Member Search" area.

Credit Card Information

All credit card transactions are conducted over a secure connection. Credit card information is not stored.

CME Activity Information

As part of our CME Program, we collect information to maintain a record of participation. We collect personal information, including your name, phone number and email address. We also collect responses to quizzes and tests to assess your understanding and performance. We may also collect information to assess the effectiveness of our programs, such as your achievement of the learning objectives, changes you plan to implement in your practice and your feedback on the course content and speakers.

Information Shared with Third Parties

We may share some of your identifiable CME data with AOCD-approved Third Parties of the CME Program. If you register for programs and request credit, we share your CME data with the Third Parties responsible for administering those activities. Your information may be shared with:

- Accrediting bodies external from the AOCD for which you seek credit.
- Credit card processing Third Party vendors for payment of registration fees.
- Any Maintenance of Certification program for which you register.
- Other service providers, if you wish to receive credit, with your permission.
