AOCD REUNION & FOD FUNDRAISER

SATURDAY APRIL 13, 2024

Westin Kierland Scottsdale, AZ

ALL PROCEEDS GO TO THE Foundation for Osteopathic Dermatology
Meeting planning is an ongoing process for the staff of the AOCD. Once we complete a meeting we take information from that meeting and use it to help plan the next. AOCD has decided to now host one live in-person meeting and one on demand virtual meeting each year. Our on demand meeting for 2023 has just wrapped up and we are now completing details for the live in-person meeting to be held April 11-14, 2024 at the Westin Kierland in Scottsdale, AZ.

We were able to visit this site last spring and it is amazing. Great weather this time of year and so much for the family to do. Not to mention the beautiful meeting facilities. New this year we have added the first AOCD Reunion & FOD fundraiser. A time for old friends to get together and catch up.

The 2024 line up has new and returning speakers covering most everything for the dermatology professionals. Sunday will wrap things up with the sessions for special state requirements courses.
AOCD host one of the few dermatology meetings that is able to offer both ACCME & AOA category 1A dermatology CME. Remember these courses are those that you have requested by your feedback from previous meetings. As members once you submit your attestation, AOCD reports your CME to the AOA, and CE Tracker.

Another part of this event is the annual AOCD meeting and reception with installation of officers. This will be held Friday evening on the terrace.

AOCD will be hosting Expo Central with all day breaks and at least 5 product theaters during breakfast and lunch Thursday, Friday & Saturday.

It is our goal to make our CME live meetings a casual, family event, with professional speakers providing high quality CME for all dermatology professionals.
Did you ever wonder how AOCD plans your meetings? It’s a very complex process. Previous meeting evaluations are reviewed. Topics are submitted to the education committee. AOCD keeps an extensive speaker database and topics are matched with speakers, and then reviewed by the committee. Staff contacts speakers, if available to speak several documents must be completed and verified. This is to satisfy AOA and ACCME. Once this is done the speaker is added to the schedule.

While this is going on other staff is working with the host location to set up meeting space, expo space, rooms for all, and food and beverage. Staff is also working with vendors and sponsors in setting up the expo and other non-CME events. This is also the time of extensive marketing for the meeting.

I know you will look at the following information, and say who cares. To keep all of our regulating organizations happy we have to make sure that all our members are aware of these points and they are published. You will also see this information attached to all of our video products.

AOCD PRIVACY POLICY
The American Osteopathic College of Dermatology (AOCD) is committed to maintaining the privacy of the personal information of visitors to its site, including AOCD members. We will never sell members’ personal information, including addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses. Our policies are designed to disclose the information collected and how it will be used. The terms of the privacy policy do not govern personal information furnished through any means other than this website (such as by telephone or mail). We will make every attempt to only provide professional office addresses of our members, since these can be obtained through internet searches.

Email Address and Other Personal Information
Personal information such as postal and email addresses that you provide to the AOCD through our website may be used internally for maintaining member records, marketing purposes and alerting customers or members of additional services available. Such information may also be provided to selected vendors that AOCD believes may have products or services of interest to our members. Phone numbers that you provide may also be used by the AOCD when questions about products or services arise. Registered site members have the ability to conduct a “Member Search” to obtain contact information of fellow members. Members may adjust settings in the “Edit Bio” area of the website to dictate which portions of their contact information should be available in the “Member Search” area.

Credit Card Information
All credit card transactions are conducted over a secure connection. Credit card information is not stored.

CME Activity Information
As part of our CME Program, we collect information to maintain a record of participation. We collect personal information, including your name, phone number and email address. We also collect responses to quizzes and tests to assess your understanding and performance. We may also collect information to assess the effectiveness of our programs, such as your achievement of the learning objectives, changes you plan to implement in your practice and your feedback on the course content and speakers.

Information Shared with Third Parties
We may share some of your identifiable CME data with AOCD-approved Third Parties of the CME Program. If you register for programs and request credit, we share your CME data with the Third Parties responsible for administering those activities. Your information may be shared with:
- Accrediting bodies external from the AOCD for which you seek credit.
- Credit card processing Third Party vendors for payment of registration fees.
- Any Maintenance of Certification program for which you register.
- Other service providers, if you wish to receive credit, with your permission.
NEW TO AOCD ONLINE LEARNING
DERMATOLOGY SELF-ASSESSMENT EXAMS

Dermatology self-assessment exams are available now on AOCD Online Learning. These exams are six unique tests programmed as traditional multiple choice dermatology in-service exams and designed as automated self-assessment tools to help identify strengths and knowledge gaps in dermatology. Exam sections include dermatopathology, kodachrome, and comprehensive. Dermatopathology and kodachrome sections feature slides and photographs with built-in image navigation features. The comprehensive section spans the spectrum of the dermatologic field. Receive instantaneous feedback, with the ability to review correct and incorrect answers after the exam. In addition, receive a downloadable report detailing your results in each category and comprehensive exam sub-category. Additional features and exam formats coming soon.

Your one stop to find out what is happening!
Hey All,

So the summer is over and it will soon be the holiday season. We have completed the fall virtual on demand event, and are busy processing your CME information.

We are now deep into the final planning of the Spring 2024 Annual Meeting & Expo. This will be held April 11-14 in Scottsdale, AZ and will be our only live in-person meeting in 2024.

At this meeting and expo we will be hosting, along with the foundation the First AOCD Reunion and fund raiser. This will be a great time to see and visit with old friends and tell a few stories. Saturday April 13 will be filled with special events with the informal reception that evening. Doctor Conte and the FOD board are working on details and I am sure they would love your input.

Funding for this meeting is going to be an issue, as most of our pharma companies are looking at meeting attendance and the interaction they get from our members. As we see our meeting registrations drop, our membership drop, and the engagement with vendors drop, they have to look at their return. Without their support we will have to increase meeting cost.

We know you have several options to gain your needed CME. Please remember AOCD holds our accreditation with ACCME and the AOA. We don’t use third party joint providers. What this means is that we follow the rules, and there is no question about the quality of our CME. Please make sure you read our article in this newsletter telling you how a meeting is planned. Accreditation providers have told us they are looking closely at all providers and some are currently on probation, some have lost their accreditation.

We hope to soon add the location on our 2026 annual meeting as we negotiate with hotels to see who can give us the best deal for a quality meeting site.

Remember as the pharma reps show up at your office. Remind them how much the AOCD appreciates their support!
Scottsdale has adult time also!
Greetings,

With summer winding down and autumn officially here (my personal favorite season), I hope you all are having a great and productive year.

I would like to thank everyone who took part in and supported the 2023 AOCD Fall On-Demand Dermatology Review. I hope this was a beneficial collection of information and updates for those who were unable to attend the 2022 Fall Conference or 2023 Spring Conference. Just a friendly reminder: Please be sure to submit your CME attestation for the review to receive your credit.

If you can’t wait to be back with the AOCD for in-person learning, your next opportunity will be coming up in April 2024! Registration opens up for this conference, Monday, October 2, 2023. It will be held in Scottsdale, AZ, April 11-14, 2024. Click the following link for more details, the current schedule lineup, and to register for the conference: https://www.aocd.org/events/EventDetails.aspx?id=1561921

Our host hotel for the conference is the Westin Kierland. To receive our group rate of $359/night (+fees), please use the following link: https://book.passkey.com/go/AmericanOsteopathic2024

Please note, the reservation deadline for our room block is March 19, 2024, but do not delay in booking your room, as the block is limited. We hope to see you in Scottsdale.

For our resident & student contributors to the 2024 Spring Meeting, I wanted to remind you of a few important dates with regard to the conference. Our call for posters and lectures closed on September 15, and we are unable to accept any additional submissions. For those who successfully submitted your intent, the due dates are as follows:

For Poster Gallery Contributors:

Required materials due February 29, 2024 (six weeks prior to the first day of the conference):

- Completed Poster Gallery Documentation Packet
  - Poster submission form, Faculty disclosure statement (Completed by the submitting author and lead author)
  - Brief biography of poster’s author (50-150 words)
  - Written abstract summarizing poster content. Abstract should be no longer than 500 words and contain the following: Title and author information, Introduction, Methods, Results and Conclusion
A copy of the poster in PDF or Powerpoint format

For Resident Lecturers:

- Please submit the following documents to the AOCD no later than October 31, 2023:
  - Completed and signed Speaker Acceptance / Lecture Proposal Form
  - Brief Bio (approximately 2-3 paragraphs in length)
  - Current CV
  - Portrait Photo (high resolution JPEG or PNG preferred)
- Please submit the following materials no later than February 29, 2024 (six weeks prior to the first day of the conference):
  - Program Director’s Statement Form (to be completed by program director upon review of the presentation)
  - Residency program directors are responsible for reviewing presentation content prior to resident submission. The residency program director will submit a signed and dated statement that the resident’s oral presentation has been reviewed.
  - Copy of completed Powerpoint file
Any revisions to the Powerpoint must be received no later than March 28, 2024 (two weeks prior to the first day the conference).

Finally, we’ve recently published some new articles to the Dermatologic Disease Database recently on the topics of Acquired Brachial Cutaneous Dyschromatosis, Hidrotic Ectodermal Dysplasia, Nevus Achromicus, Supernumerary Nipples, and Zoon’s Balanitis. Thank you to all the contributors to this project, who have helped create this resource from which so many users benefit.

I hope everyone has a great fall season, and thank you for your continued membership and support of the American Osteopathic College of Dermatology.

Hello,

As the education coordinator on of my duties to help plan the content for all our meetings. The AOCD has many great speakers that provide content for our live and on demand meetings. But we are always looking for new speakers with new topics.

Are you one that has the knowledge but just isn’t comfortable with standing in front of your piers delivering that information. Your not alone I speak with several that just can’t do it. Or is it you just can’t fine the time to come to one of our meetings but have great information to share? Maybe you have more than one topic and we just couldn’t fit you in at our live meeting.

Have I got a deal for you! Build a program and submit the power point to me and I will have it reviewed, then record it and we will use it at one of our virtual meetings. And we will compensate you for your time!

If you are interested please contact Marsha or me and we will work out a plan. Email or call us at mailto:aocdderm@gmail.com or phone (660) 665-2184
