The title of Fellow of the American Osteopathic College of Radiology (FAOCR) may be conferred upon Active and Life Members by the Board of Directors. The honored FAOCR title is an earned award, in recognition of activities performed to reflect credit upon the College, osteopathic medicine and radiology.

The eligibility requirements, application process, and the process for reinstatement of the designation when a member resigns, is suspended or is terminated from membership shall be established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V: OFFICERS
Section 1 - Officers
1. President
2. President-elect
3. Vice President
4. Immediate Past President
5. Secretary - Treasurer

Section 2 - President
The President shall be the presiding officer of the College and shall execute all duties delegated to him/her by the Board of Directors. The President shall be an ex-officio (non-voting) member of all committees except the Executive Committee of which the President shall serve as chair and the Leadership Identification Committee of which the President is a voting member. The President, in conjunction with the Leadership Identification Committee, shall appoint all standing committee members and task force members.
In the event of vacancy of the office of President, the President-elect shall fill the office during the remainder of the President's term and then automatically succeed to the office as provided. The term of office of the President shall begin at the conclusion of the installation exercises at the annual awards ceremony following his/her term of office as President-elect.

Section 3-President-elect
The President-elect shall perform duties as determined by the Board of Directors, including, but not limited to, the duties of the President if he/she is absent or unable to act. The term of office of the President-elect shall begin at the conclusion of the installation exercises at the annual awards ceremony following his/her term of office as Vice President.

In the event of vacancy of the office of President-elect, the Vice President shall fill the office during the remainder of the President-elect’s term and then automatically succeed to the office as provided.

Section 4-Vice President
The Vice President shall perform duties as determined by the Board of Directors.

In the event the office of Vice President becomes vacant, the office shall remain vacant until the next election, at which time the Vice President shall be elected.

Section 5-Immediate Past President
The Immediate Past President shall perform duties as determined by the Board of Directors. The term of office of the Immediate Past President shall begin at the conclusion of the installation exercises at the annual awards ceremony following his/her term of office as President.

Section 6-Secretary-Treasurer
The Secretary-Treasurer shall oversee the College’s funds and financial records, the establishment of appropriate accounting procedures, the performance of an audit by a certified public accountant as determined by the Board of Directors. He/she shall ensure that minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the membership are maintained, a current roster of members is maintained, and all notices are duly given in accordance with applicable law. He/she shall be the custodian of the corporate records, including Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws; and in general, shall perform all duties customarily incident to the office of the secretary-treasurer and such other duties determined by the Board of Directors.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall be bonded in an amount satisfactory to the Board of Directors, at the expense of the College.

The Board of Directors may assign the duties of the Secretary-Treasurer in whole or in part to the Executive Director.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall be an elected member of the Board of Directors and shall serve for a term of three years. The Secretary-Treasurer may serve multiple terms.

In the event the office of Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant, the President shall appoint a member of the Board of Directors to the office for the remainder of the unexpired term.
Section 7- Executive Director
The Board of Directors shall employ an Executive Director whose term of employment, title, salary, and benefits shall be determined by the Board. The Executive Director shall be directly responsible to the Board and be the chief executive and operating officer of the College. He/she shall have the responsibility for the management and direction of all operations, programs, activities, and affairs of the College, including employment and the determination of compensation of members of the staff and supporting personnel, functioning within the framework of policy, budget, aims, and programs as determined by the Board. He/she shall have such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board. He/she is an ex-officio non-voting member of the Board of Directors.

The Executive Director and staff shall be bonded in an amount satisfactory to the Board of Directors, at the expense of the College.

ARTICLE VI: BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Section 1-Authority and Responsibility
The Board of Directors shall have supervision, control, and direction of the affairs of the College; shall determine its policies or changes therein within the limits of these Bylaws, shall actively promote its purposes and shall have discretion in the disbursement of its funds. It may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable, and may, in the execution of the power granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary.

Section 2-Composition and Election
The Board of Directors shall be composed of eleven (11) Board members, to include six (6) members at-large, President, President-elect, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer and Immediate Past President. The Executive Director shall be invited to attend and participate in all meetings of the Board of Directors.

Members at-large shall be elected for a term of three (3) years not to exceed a total of nine (9) years.

Elections shall be held at the annual member meeting of the College. The Directors shall take office immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting in which their election is announced.

A member currently serving on the American Osteopathic Board of Radiology’s Board of Directors or the American Board of Radiology’s Board of Governors or Board of Trustees is ineligible to serve on the AOCR Board of Directors.
Section 3-Vacancies and Removal
Any member of the Board may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Executive Director. In addition, any member may be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the Board, whenever, in their judgment, the best interests of the College would be served by such removal.

In the event of vacancy of a Director, the Board of Directors may appoint an individual to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section 4-Board Meetings
The Board of Directors shall hold at least one meeting in each calendar year at such time and place as designated by the President and the Board of Directors. Interim business of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee may be conducted by mail, electronically, or by telephone.

A majority of the whole Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE VII: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Immediate Past President and shall perform such duties as assigned by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act on behalf of the Board of Directors between meetings of the Board. The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President. Notice of the meeting shall be sent not less than five days prior to the meeting unless mitigating circumstances are present. A majority of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII: MEMBER MEETINGS
Section 1-Annual Member Meeting
There shall be an annual member meeting at a time and place to be determined by the Board. Special member meetings may be called by the President or any five (5) members of the Board of Directors, or at the written request of twenty percent (20%) of the members of the College entitled to vote. Notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be sent not less than fifteen days prior to the proposed meeting.

Section 2-Quorum
Thirty (30) voting members shall constitute a quorum at a member meeting.

Section 3-Voting Privileges
Only Active and Life Members in good standing shall have the privilege of a vote at a member meeting.

ARTICLE IX: USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION
Unless otherwise prohibited by law, any action to be taken or notice delivered under these Bylaws may be taken or transmitted by electronic mail or other electronic means; and any action or approval required to be written or in writing may be transmitted or received by electronic mail or other electronic means.
ARTICLE X: DISSOLUTION
In the event of dissolution of the College any funds remaining shall be distributed to one or more regularly organized and qualified charitable, educational, scientific or philanthropic organizations to be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI: INDEMNIFICATION
The College shall provide for indemnification of any of its officers, Board of Director members, committee members and employees against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with activities undertaken at the College’s request if such person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the College to the extent such indemnification is permitted by law.

ARTICLE XII: AMENDMENTS
Amendments to the Bylaws shall be submitted to the Board of Directors and if approved by a majority vote may be adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of eligible votes received via an electronic vote or by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of eligible voting members at the next annual meeting. The proposed amendments shall have been sent to all voting members by any reasonable means (including electronic, regular mail or posting in an AOCR newsletter) not less than thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the next meeting vote.
